FOREWORD BY ROTHMANS OF PALL MALL

Rothmans Football Yearbook has enjoyed a position at the top of its 'league' for eight years.

The fact that during this time our Yearbook has consistently figured amongst the best selling books of its type proves that the hard work of publishers Macdonald and Jane's and their editorial team has been well worth while.

It is always considered a compliment when members of the football Press refer to the Yearbook as 'Rothmans' in the same affectionate way that the cricket world has treasured the statistical records presented by 'Wisdens' for well over a hundred years.

This season sees a strange contrast in emotions in senior British Football. The English and Northern Ireland national sides cannot be considered favourites to qualify for the World Cup Finals, although Scotland or Wales have a good chance of winning a coveted trip to Argentina, but in European Club football Liverpool reign supreme as European Cup holders.

Will Kevin Keegan's transfer to Hamburg herald a regular flow of our best talents to the continent? Will the Midlands challenge the North's supremacy in the Football League? Will Rangers come back to knock Celtic off the top in Scotland?

All these questions and many others will spark off arguments wherever football is discussed this season, and we hope that the 1977–78 edition of Rothmans Football Yearbook will be as popular and useful in stimulating these discussions as its predecessors have been.

Following the introduction of 'end product tax', the company's decision to withdraw from all sponsorship of sport obviously brought to an end our very happy partnerships with the sponsored leagues (Isthmian, Northern, Western and Hellenic). Hopefully the leagues will find new sponsors to help them in their campaign to promote first class, sporting and positive football in the semi-professional area. We are sorry to be leaving them but hope that our help will be remembered, and that our contribution to British football will continue to be appreciated through Rothmans Football Yearbook for many years to come.

INTRODUCTION

It is an old truism in football that it is very difficult to reach the top, but it's even harder to stay there. We, the compilers of Rothmans Football Yearbook 1977–78, are faced with the very same problem. While it is pleasing to contemplate this publication's lofty position, not only within the game, but also with the average fan, we are conscious of the responsibility that goes hand-in-hand with the book's reputation. Countless quiz competitions up and down the country, individual friendly bets, and some not so friendly arguments are decided by the facts and figures published in Rothmans. In many cases, even transfer deals depend on our appearance and goalscoring figures although, of course, mere statistics cannot truthfully reflect a player's worth to a particular club. This year, as always, due to the wealth of material at our disposal, we have continued with our policy of introducing new features. We are publishing the comparative statistical analysis of all the English Football League Champions since the war. There is an up-to-date European Club Directory, line-ups of all Inter-League matches and we are paying particular attention to the forthcoming World Cup. Our day-by-day diary is a unique record of the season's events, and with monthly 'headlines', all the major happenings can be traced easily by the reader. The usual features include Liverpool's triumphant climb to the top of the European tree, the line-ups of every World Cup match played in the European Qualifying Groups, detailed Football League statistics, FA Cup and League Cup line-ups. The same attention has been paid to matches played in Scotland, and there are separate sections for followers of Welsh and Irish football. Our European Nations section is the best possible guide concerning the domestic football of every country in UEFA membership—in fact a complete record from Albania to Yugoslavia.

Of course, it is not possible to compile such detailed information without the invaluable assistance we receive from various organisations, club secretaries, and officials. We are especially grateful to Mrs Sandra Whiteside of the Football League, Mr Mike McNamara of the Football Association, and Mr Tom Maule of the Scottish League, all of whom were extremely helpful.

We trust that this eighth edition will again maintain the standards of previous issues of Rothmans Football Yearbook.

ROTHMANS FOOTBALL AWARDS 1977

The following six people are to receive special awards from Rothmans for having made a worthwhile contribution to the wide spectrum of the game in season 1976-77.

LIVERPOOL FC. When the panel began their deliberations concerning this year's awards, the players of Liverpool were the first to receive admiring recommendations. Keegan? Hughes? Clemence? Tommy Smith? Heighway? Kennedy? Jones – the Kop's special darling? They all deserve an award for services rendered to a target which has been achieved so magnificently. But if we were to single out any individual, how could we express our thanks on behalf of English football to such architects of a remarkable season as Bob Paisley, his lieutenants Ron Moran, Joe Fagan, and the rest of the back-room staff, headed by surely one of the game's most respected secretaries, Peter Robinson? Logically, we decided to give this award to the entire Liverpool football club, as recognition of a unique campaign in which they won the League, brought the European Cup back to England after nine years, and reached the FA Cup final.

MARTIN BUCHAN. At the beginning of the season, Manchester United were widely tipped to win the Championship. After a mediocre start, they rallied well enough, but a mid-season slump put paid to their aspirations. It is no coincidence that this barren period coincided with the absence of team captain Martin Buchan, who was out of the game with injury. The elegant, cultured football of this Scottish international might be refreshingly out of place in the hurly-burly of our domestic game, but nevertheless it is highly effective, and the perfect foil in the heart of the United defence to that ebullient character Brian Greenhoff. Buchan, the nearest we have to Franz Beckenbauer, captained his team in the victorious Cup final at Wembley and has had an outstanding season.

PETER WARD. This imaginative, tricky ball artist and goal poacher is proof that excellent players are still be to found outside the Football League. A product of Burton Albion, he settled down well in the Brighton forward line, and with the unerring accuracy and coolness of a Jimmy Greaves, scored a record number of goals in a season for the Alan Mullery-led seasiders. Ward is a born footballer and he inspires a murmur of anticipation and excitement every time he has the ball. Definitely 'one for the future', he receives our award as the League's top scorer in the 1976-77 season.

DANNY McGRAIN. After the recent Brazil–Scotland international, the South Americans, who can recognise a good player when they see one, gave rave reviews to this brilliant full-back. He was also the man of the match earlier at Wembley when Scotland defeated England. In fact, McGrain is simply the best right full-back in Europe. He is able to tackle, to distribute with nerveless accuracy, to attack down the flank, to finish off moves with thundering shots. Celtic have a great footballer in McGrain, who is an automatic choice for Scotland.

JACK TAYLOR. Referees are never praised – only criticised! An ancient axiom which certainly doesn't apply to this much-respected citizen of Wolverhampton, who has been lauded as one of the best officials in world football. The highlight of his career was the 1974 World Cup final, when he had the courage to award a first-minute penalty against the home side, West Germany, and later to caution the volatile Cruyff. Taylor has a deep understanding of football. He applied the laws of the game without fear or favour, and his integrity and impartiality were never questioned. Due to the contentious age limit clause, he has now retired, but it is hoped that he will continue to be involved in football in some capacity.

LAURIE CUNNINGHAM. Behind the simple statistical fact that Cunningham is the first coloured footballer to represent England lies the emergence of a remarkable player. He opened the season as a 'promising winger' in Division Two with Orient, and despite his dazzling footwork, many experts doubted the wisdom of West Bromwich manager Johnny Giles, when he paid a six-figure fee for him. But Cunningham, as the saying goes, set the First Division alight, and by the end of the campaign was an established member of the England Under-21 side, fighting in the junior version of the European Championship. Because of the colour of his skin, Cunningham has had to put up with abuse from the ignorant section of the crowd, and provocation from opposing defenders. He has come through this test with flying colours so far – one only hopes that his progress in the game will be maintained.

EDITORIAL

Brian James

Mount Everest is 29,028 feet high, and a climber who loses his grip 12 inches from the summit is said to have failed. But we would not be slow to praise the skill and endurance that took him so close to success. Thus in football we cannot simply dismiss Liverpool's towering achievements because they failed by one goal at Wembley to win the absurdly-difficult 'Treble'.

Liverpool are again England's Champions. And Liverpool are also Champions of Europe. The fact that they lost the FA Cup to Manchester United must not tempt us into diminishing them with the glib label of the 'side that failed to win the Treble'.

For their efforts, Liverpool and their players were well-rewarded. But in addition to reward, their victories brought them responsibilities. The single question most asked in Rome after their European Cup victory was 'how do we follow this – what is there left to achieve?'

My answer is this – Liverpool must set themselves the task of becoming the leaders this country's club football has needed for years. Just as fans follow the successful teams, other clubs, coaches and players borrow unashamedly from their style and tactics. And over the past few years, too few of the leaders of the Football League have possessed either the wit or endurance to impose any lasting impression upon a stagnant scene.

Liverpool could be the leaders to change the game. They have a capacity for the role that few of their predecessors could claim. Liverpool already have strength – they won their titles with key players like Toshack, Thompson and Callaghan injured. They already have extra potential in substitutes and squad-members like Fairclough, Lee, and Waddle. And they have wealth to acquire a replacement for Kevin Keegan, and reinforcements for every division of the side.

Liverpool have other great advantages. First, in their simple style of preparation and play. They have no great complexity of tactics to unravel or unlearn before their teams could start again. They could change their style with a word – 'attack'.

And secondly, they have the advantage of a literal mountain of support that makes them almost fireproof in any period of adjustment. If someone at Anfield declared 'We are going to try things differently . . . it might take a little time . . . lose a few matches . . . bear with us' there can be no doubt what the response would be from the Kop – a mighty roar of 'Great'!

We come, then, to the question at the heart of this notion: why should Liverpool bother to change anything? They are, after all, doing nicely as they are. I answer in this way: some time ago the club's pleasant and placid-seeming chairman, the far-from-plain John Smith, told me he wanted Liverpool to be recognised as 'one of the greatest sporting organisations on earth'. A tall order, but not an impossible ambition.

And yet not one that can be achieved by success in terms of results or profits alone. To attain that level of supremacy in sport you need charisma, an abiding image to linger when you have gone. In all sports there have been men, teams or clubs remembered now though their scores are forgotten – remembered not for what they did, but how they did it.

In football, Real Madrid and Stan Matthews . . . the Busby Babes . . . and Bobby Moore . . . Super Spurs and Glorious Celtic . . . and Puskas, and Pele, and Brazil, and Beckenbauer, and the Wembley Wizards, and Honved, and Ajax, and Bayern and Best, and Finney, and Garrincha, and Di Stefano. The word for what they all had was . . . style.

That, to answer that oft-repeated question from Rome, is what Liverpool can still achieve. Liverpool have the power. Let them now go and seek the glory.

DIARY 1976-77

June
Good start for England in the World Cup . . . Czechoslovakia are the new European Champions . . . Duncan McKenzie signs for Anderlecht . . . Terry Venables takes over at Crystal Palace.

10 UEFA ban Wales until 1982 from entering the European Championship. The suspension is imposed in consequence of crowd trouble during the quarter-final against Yugoslavia. The Welsh FA decide to appeal against the decision.

11 John Ireland, Wolves chairman for 12 years, is removed from the post at the end of a power struggle over the sacking of manager Bill McGarry . . . England play training matches against 'amateur' sides to get the feel of scoring goals – a tip taken from the Hungarians of 20 years ago.

12 Pat Jennings and Arfon Griffiths are awarded MBEs in the Queen's Birthday Honours List.

13 England open their World Cup bid with a convincing 4-1 win against Finland in Helsinki. Pearson's goal is equalized by the Finns, but Keegan (2) and Channon complete England's scoring. Don Revie praises the team's performance, and the players unstinting effort at the end of a gruelling season.

16 Terry Venables becomes manager of Crystal Palace . . . Danny Blanchflower, the 51-year-old ex-international, is the new part-time manager of Northern Ireland. Blanchflower says he intends to organize training matches against English club sides . . . In the first European Championship semi-final, Czechoslovakia beat Holland 3-1. In the pouring rain at Zagreb, Ondrus scores for the Czechs, and later the same player puts through his own goal. In extra time Nehoda and sub Vesely get the Czech goals Referee Clive Thomas of Wales sends off Pollak, Neeskens, and Van Hanegem, and books several players including Johan Cruyff.

17 In Belgrade, West Germany beat Yugoslavia 4-2 after extra time. The Yugoslavs score two early goals, but substitute Flohe scores for Germany in the second half, and another sub, Dieter Muller, equalizes. Muller scores two more goals in extra time to give West Germany victory . . . John Beck joins Coventry from QPR for £40,000.

19 Sammy Chung is the new manager of Wolves. He has been Bill McGarry's assistant not only at Wolverhampton but also with other clubs . . . Holland clinch the third place spot in the European Championship with a 3-2 extra-time win over hosts Yugoslavia. In all three games so far, extra time has been necessary to separate the teams.

20 Czechoslovakia beat West Germany in a dramatic penalty-kick decider in the final of the European Championship. The Czechs go two up through Svehlik and Dobias, but Dieter Muller pulls a goal back for the Germans before the interval. Holzenbein heads the equalizer seconds before the final whistle, and there is no further scoring in extra time. Czechoslovakia score all five penalties, but Hoeness shoots over the bar for Germany. Originally a replay had been scheduled in case of a draw, but hours before the match, the two team managers decide that penalty-kicks should decide the issue – if necessary!

22 Vic Halom of Sunderland joins Oldham for a £25,000 fee . . . Denis Howell writes letters of appreciation to West Ham and Liverpool concerning their fans 'commendable behaviour' in their European Cup matches on the Continent.

23 Chelsea's future is in danger due to the club's precarious financial position. The Board calls in a firm of accountants to assess the situation and a meeting of the creditors is scheduled for next week. A Greater London Council leader, Tony Banks, says that the GLC should rescue Chelsea and if necessary should take over the club . . . Terry Neill resigns his job as Tottenham manager.

24 Duncan McKenzie signs for Anderlecht of Belgium. Leeds collect £200,000 and the player is assured of a lucrative two-year contract plus a signing-on fee . . . Bill Dodgin leaves Northampton despite the club's promotion into Division Three.

26 Sir Harold Thompson is the new chairman of the Football Association. After his election he urges clubs to play more attacking football to bring back the crowds: 'The trouble is that our clubs cannot afford to lose matches' he says. 'I understand their problem, but we must make an effort. I may have a few ideas about improving the game, but I am not ready to talk yet.'

29 Bill McGarry signs a two-year contract for Saudi Arabia. He'll be their national team coach and will look after the squad at Coventry, where they will have a pre-season stay with the First Division club . . . Ray Clarke of Mansfield signs for Sparta Rotterdam. The fee is reputed to be £50,000. This is the first deal arranged by Peter Morris, Mansfield's new player/manager.

July

Creditors ease off at Chelsea . . . Terry Neill is the new Arsenal manager, and signs Malcolm Macdonald for £333,333 . . . Other managerial changes occur almost daily.

1 A few more close season transfer deals are finalized – Brian Hall from Liverpool to Plymouth for £35,000. Brian Kidd from Arsenal to Manchester City for £100,000 and Martin Chivers from Tottenham to Servette Zurich for £80,000 . . . The ban on Real Madrid is lifted by UEFA, but the Spanish Champions must play their next three competitive home cup matches 300 kilometres away from their own ground.

2 Chelsea receive 12 months moratorium from their creditors, but they are told that the club must not borrow any more money, and must break even during the coming season.

5 John Hulme of Bury is appointed as manager of the Swiss club, Le Chaux-de-Fonds.

8 It is confirmed that Terry Neill will take over Arsenal. He had been a player with the Gunners for 11 years.

9 John Mortimore is appointed as manager of the top Portuguese club, Benfica . . . Ninian Park, Cardiff, scene of the crowd disturbances which have led to Wales being banned from the next European Championship, is to be completely fenced off. Trevor Morris, Welsh FA Secretary says: 'We have invited Cardiff officials to discuss security details and the question of finance' . . . Coach Bobby Campbell leaves Arsenal in the wake of Neill's arrival.

13 Gunter Netzer leaves Real Madrid for Grasshoppers of Zurich. The Danish-born Jensen of Moenchengladbach replaces him at Real.

14 Coach Keith Burkinshaw is promoted to the job of manager at Tottenham. Assistant manager Wilf Dixon moves to Arsenal to team up once again with Terry Neill. His place at Spurs goes to Pat Welton, who has been in charge of their Youth team.

15 The Saudi Arabian squad is in Coventry for a six-week training spell under new manager Bill McGarry . . . Alan Whittle joins Sheffield United on a free transfer.

16 Alan Mullery takes over as manager at Brighton. The ex-England player fills the vacancy left by Peter Taylor, who has resigned.

17 The managerial musical chairs game continues – Taylor teams up with his old partner Brian Clough at Nottingham Forest, and Bobby Campbell, recently deposed Arsenal coach, goes to Fulham as chief coach. It is the fourth time that Clough and Taylor have jointly run a team – previous clubs: Hartlepool, Derby, Brighton . . . Clough also signs Sean Haslegrave from Stoke.

18 The Olympic Games Football Tournament opens with two surprise draws – East Germany drop a point against Brazil, and Poland finish level with Cuba.

19 Trevor Francis is fined £100 for making derogatory remarks about his own club, Birmingham, Manager Willie Bell is reported as saying: 'Francis is not for sale. He must not criticize our squad in public. He'll be telling us how to cut the grass next' . . . Roger Davies signs for Bruges, Belgian champions, in a £135,000 deal.

20 Bill Nicholson returns to Tottenham as chief adviser to new Spurs manager Keith Burkinshaw . . . Harry Potts also returns to his old club as Chief Scout at Burnley.

22 The Chelsea players volunteer to take a cut in their pay packets in order to help the club's finances. Chairman Brian Mears says: 'Any cynicism I had about footballers has now been swept away.'

24 Gary Jones joins Birmingham from Everton for £110,000.

26 Tommy Docherty travels to Canada to meet Alan Foggon of Middlesbrough, who is playing for a club in America. As a result of the 6800-mile trip Foggon signs for Manchester United for £40,000.

27 Paul Bennett of Southampton goes to Reading for £8000.

29 The biggest transfer of the close season takes place when Malcolm Macdonald signs for Arsenal from Newcastle for a £333,333 fee – the first major deal for new manager Terry Neill.

31 Surrey businessman Ernie Clay becomes the executive director of Fulham with the overall responsibility of running the club.

August
East Germany win the Olympic title . . . Liverpool take Charity Shield in front of record crowd . . . World Cup supremo assassinated . . . George Best and Rodney Marsh to play for Fulham . . . Tommy Docherty calls for the birch for soccer hooligans.

1 Further managerial recruitments at Fulham – Bertie Mee, ex-Arsenal boss and Len Shackleton, the old England player, join the club as 'advisers' . . . East Germany beat Poland 3-1 in the Olympic Games Final, the Soviet Union are third, Brazil fourth.
2 Aston Villa sign Gordon Smith, St. Johnstone's under-23 Scottish international defender, for £80,000 . . . Cruzeiro win the South American Cup – the first Brazilian club to do so for 15 years.
3 Manchester United and Ajax directors meet in Amsterdam to discuss the biggest ever 'anti-hooligan' operation in connection with their UEFA-Cup matches . . . Players sent off in English League or Cup matches will no longer be banned from European competitions or internationals. Suspensions will only apply for domestic football . . . Bob Wilson, the ex-Arsenal 'keeper, rejects an offer by Fulham to resume his career. Wilson, 34, still has a year to run of his BBC contract as a presenter of Football Focus.
4 The European season opens early with a preliminary tie in the Cup-Winners' Cup at Cardiff. The Welsh side beat Servette 1-0 with a late Tony Evans goal. The Swiss club include their new signing from Tottenham, Martin Chivers . . . Luton Town are sued by former chairman Len Hawkins for the repayment of a £5000 loan . . . Norwich striker Ted MacDougall is banned for the opening two games of the League season, having been sent off in Norway in a friendly.
7 Bigger crowds, but fewer goals on the opening day of the Anglo-Scottish Cup. 85,341 people see the 12 games in which only 10 goals are scored.
10 Malcolm Macdonald scores his first goals for Arsenal in Zurich. He gets two goals against Grasshoppers in a friendly . . . Jimmy Conway of Fulham signs for Manchester City.
11 Cardiff reach the First Round proper of the 'Recopa' – a Derek Showers' goal puts them ahead in Geneva, and Ron Healey saves a penalty before Servette score twice. But the Welsh Cup holders' 'away goal' gives them the tie . . . David Johnson refuses to join Tottenham from Ipswich, and is considering a similar offer from Liverpool . . . Pat Crerand takes over as Northampton's new manager . . . Tottenham ban former manager Terry Neill from their boardroom . . . Tommy Baldwin becomes a non-league player with Gravesend.
12 David Johnson's transfer from Ipswich to Liverpool is completed – the player will be eligible for the European Cup. The price – £200,000 . . . Fulham gamble on George Best and Rodney Marsh to boost their gates and help the club into Division One. Both sign lucrative long-term contracts and are expected to return from the USA early in September.
13 Alan Whittle leaves Sheffield United after a few weeks with the club . . . Palace reject a Leeds offer for Peter Taylor, and in turn Leeds reject a bid for Joe Jordan from Holland.
14 A record gate of 76,500 people see Liverpool beat Southampton 1-0 in the Charity Shield match at Wembley. Toshack scores the only goal early in the second half in a mediocre opener to the League season . . . Bolton, Nottingham Forest, Orient, and the only First Division club, Newcastle, reach the quarter-finals of the Anglo-Scottish Tournament . . . In the first leg Round One matches of the League Cup, three players are sent off.
15 Following crowd disturbances and attacks on the Liverpool players at Wembley, the FA are considering the erection of a protective wall over the players' entrance. Ted Croker says: 'We daren't risk any crowd scenes being responsible for getting England banned from international competitions.'
16 Norwich sign John Ryan, the Luton defender, for £40,000.
17 Peter Taylor scores the winning goal in Crystal Palace's 1-0 away win in the League Cup v Portsmouth . . . Alan Mullery's Brighton also win – the first success for the new manager . . . A Fulham Boardroom shake-up elevates Ernie Clay on the Directors' list, but Alec Stock remains manager.

18 Eddie Baily, the ex-Tottenham coach, is the new chief scout of West Ham. He takes over from Wally St. Pier, who has retired after 47 years with the club.

19 Guest speaker Don Revie, at the Rothmans Football Yearbook's annual luncheon says: 'The quicker we realize that sponsorship is the answer to the game's financial problems the better. I have taken a good deal of criticism, which I haven't enjoyed, because I have organized sponsorship for the England team. But it takes £500,000 a year just to keep the FA going. Tommy Docherty, United' manager welcomes Bristol City's action. 'Good luck to them. If their scheme worked, it would be marvellous'. But he added that the Minister's recommendations weren't 'tough enough' . . . Liverpool win easily in Zurich, and their passage into the Final of the European Cup seems assured. An early penalty by Risi is cancelled out by Neal. Heighway and Neal, again, from a penalty, get the goals for a 3-1 win . . . Onischenko scores the only goal of the match between Dynamo Kiev and Moenchengladbach in the other semi-final.

8 Good Friday football is well attended, and the largest crowd see Manchester City beat Leeds 2-1. They are now only one point behind the leading pair . . . Fulham beat Chelsea 3-1 in the local 'derby' – George Best scores in his second return game after his recovery from a car crash . . . Cardiff plan to build a cage between the nearest railway station and the ground, thus keeping the visiting fans away from the local shopping area.

9 Ipswich and Liverpool remain at the top after wins over Norwich and Manchester City respectively. . . . In Division Four Brentford goalkeeper Paul Priddy saves two penalties at Watford . . . Chelsea are the only team to win their match in the Division Two promotion race – they defeat Luton 2-0, while the Nottingham clubs draw 1-1 against each other. Wolves also draw, with Cardiff, and Bolton lose at home to Sheffield U. . . . Householders living near the Derby County ground seek an injunction against staging football matches there! They complain of harassment, damage to property and physical assault . . . The Dutch F.A. decide that TV evidence in disciplinary cases should be acceptable.

11 Ipswich defeat Birmingham on this Easter Monday. They are without Paul Mariner and Kevin Beattie, who is suffering from facial burns following a fire in his own garden . . . Liverpool draw at Stoke . . . Charlton beat Chelsea 4-0 with the help of a Mike Flanagan hat-trick. Afterwards Chelsea supporters stage a riot on the terraces and in the surrounding area. Andy Nelson, Charlton's manager says: 'Some of the Chelsea fans behaved like pigs'. Later it is suggested that the same measures should apply to Chelsea as are in force for Manchester United.

12 Spurs are beaten on the last day of the Easter programme at Bristol. Whitehead is fouled by Naylor late in the second-half and Cormack scores from the penalty . . . Luton lose at home to Millwall – their first defeat at home since October . . . Wolves decide to ban travelling Chelsea fans from attending the promotion clash between the two top teams . . . 'Derby County could become the first League club to use the same of a sponsor on their shirts next season', writes the Daily Mail. 'They will seek approval from the League and F.A. to advertise Saab, the Swedish car company, on their gear as part of a £300,000 sponsorship deal'.

13 330 minutes football resolves the League Cup Final. At Old Trafford Brian Little scores the winner for Aston Villa only 60 seconds from the end of the match. Over 210,000 people have seen the Wembley game and the two replays, and the takings have been in excess of £500,000. Latchford opens the scoring for Everton, but in a four-minute spell near the end of normal time, Nicholl and Little score for Villa and Lyons equalises for Everton before Little gets the winner. Villa are the first English club to be sure of a place in the UEFA Cup next season.

16 Celtic clinch the Scottish Premier Division Championship with a 1-0 win over Hibernian. The goal is scored by Joe Craig . . . Ipswich lose 2-1 at Leeds with three reserves in the side, but Liverpool's resources are better, and they win 2-0 at home with three reserves against Arsenal. Now, Liverpool are one point clear of Ipswich and two ahead of Manchester C. City win at WBA, where young Bryan Robson is taken off with a broken leg – his third 'break' this season! . . . QPR beat Middlesbrough 2-0 and are the only team to win in the bottom eight – 'We are on the crest of a slump' says Middlesbrough manager Jack Charlton . . . Chelsea beat Nottingham F. and they look certain to be promoted alongside Wolves. The third spot is contested by five clubs with Bolton the best placed . . . Tom Finney of Cambridge and David Kemp of Portsmouth score hat-tricks. The latter's is the first from a Portsmouth player in seven years . . . Two Watford players – Geidmintis and Mayes, are sent off, but the nine men win 2-0 against Huddersfield.

17 Chelsea say they will spend £2500 on their trainers' dug-outs, following criticism by Forest manager Brian Clough after yesterday's game at Stamford Bridge . . . Mike Keen is sacked by the Watford Board of Directors . . . Kevin Beattie is out of football for the rest of the season. The Ipswich player is recovering from burns suffered in a bonfire accident.

18 Laurie Cunningham is the first coloured player to be selected for an England squad. The WBA winger is included in the U-21 party against Scotland.

19 Cup semi-finalists Manchester United are beaten 4-0 at QPR . . . Manchester City win at Birmingham and join Liverpool on top of the table . . . Ken Ridden from Shrewsbury is appointed referees' supremo. In a press conference, he promises a fight against gamesmanship. 'Our refereeing standards are much higher now than they were before the clampdown a few years ago', he says.

20 Liverpool become the third English club to reach the European Cup Final. Two goals by Jimmy Case and a Keegan header give them a comfortable 3-0 second-leg win over Zurich. They will meet Borussia Moenchengladbach in Rome on May 25. The Germans beat Dynamo Kiev, to get to their first European Cup Final . . . Anderlecht, the holders, are in the Cup Winners Cup Final, where they'll meet Hamburg, while Juventus and the Spanish club Atletico Bilbao are the UEFA Cup Finalists . . . Johnny Giles announces that he is leaving West Bromwich at the end of the season. The former Leeds player does not wish to pursue a managerial career under present conditions. 'The Directors have the power without responsibility', he says. 'The Government should issue a health warning to managers – the

EIGHT GREAT GOALS OF 1976-77

Diagrams illustrating eight memorable goals from the past season

Eight Great Goals of 1976-77

A remarkable feature of this year's selection of eight significant goals of the season is the number of freaks which tilted the course of vital matches. Brian Little capitalised on an amazing misunderstanding between goalkeeper and defender to score surely the softest League Cup final winner; Jimmy Greenhoff's shoulder provided the critical contact in Manchester United's FA Cup Final triumph; Leighton James began Wales' three-goal turn-up against the European Champions with an intended centre which finished as a mystifying shot for the Czechoslovakian goalkeeper.

The remainder of the choice reflects a season in which Liverpool were dominant; in which England were just the opposite; in which one famous London club fell from grace and another began a climb back in a situation given added spice by the innovation of goal difference.

The setting of a key World Cup tie provided the perfect backdrop to a goal of true international quality which undermined England in Rome. If there was a suspicion that Causio's flick was intended to set him on his own way, the ball nevertheless fell perfectly for Benetti. Bettega's finish proved as perfect as the cross which created the chance.

The excitement of the League Cup Final was crammed into the last fifteen minutes when a staccato of goals led to yet more extra time. That in itself might not have yielded a definite result had not Darracott allowed a cross from Smith, which had been slightly deflected, to run unattended into the Everton goal area. Brian Little's instinct for an opportunity enabled him to punish the error and bring tangible reward to Aston Villa, whose attacking quality for so much of the season merited the trophy.

Leighton James's omission from the original Wales selection to face Czechoslovakia provoked a match-winning display when an injury led to his recall. Yet his opening goal could hardly have been more fortunate; the goalkeeper concentrating more on the inrushing Peter Sayer than the path of the ball. Nevertheless it provided the springboard for the domestic international success of the season.

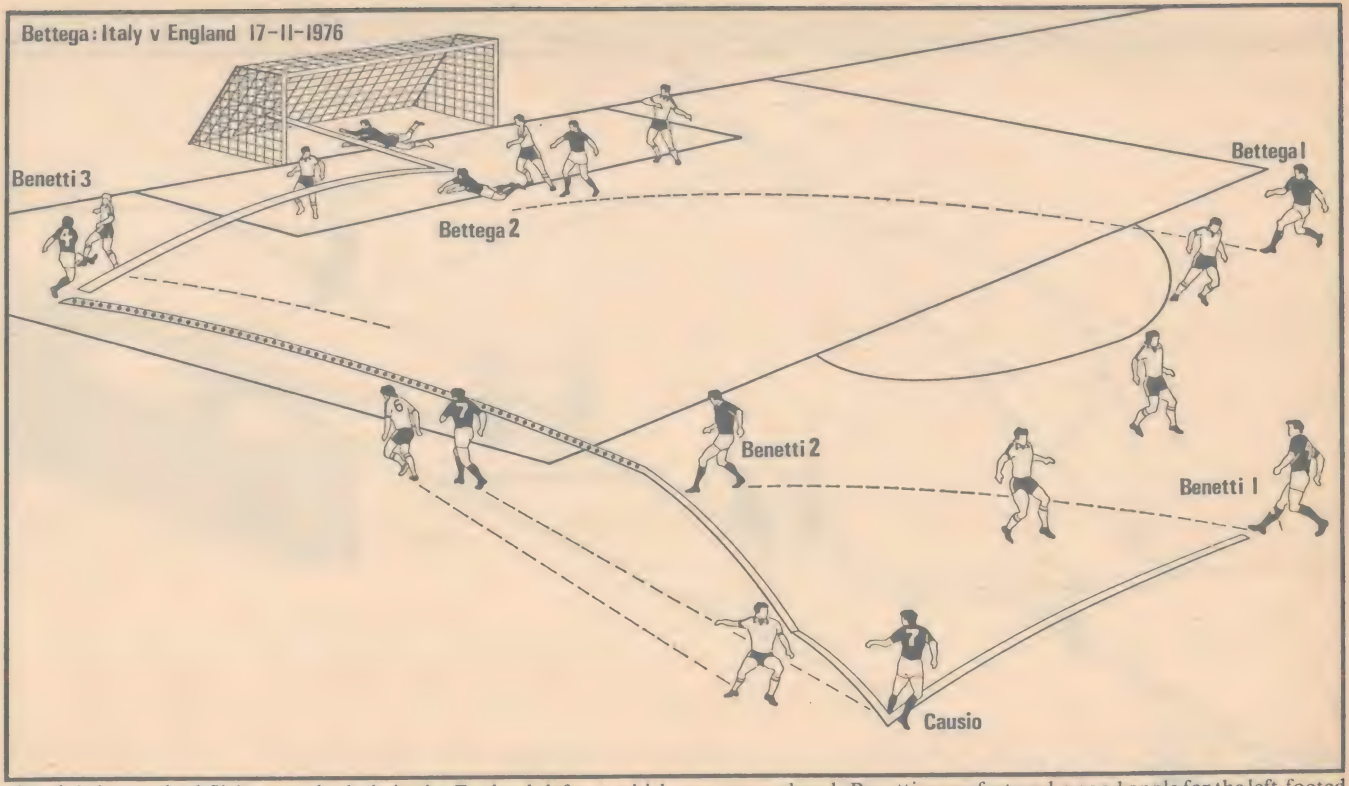
Liverpool's preoccupation with the European Cup for so long suggested that a retention of the League Championship was unlikely. Yet their much-vaunted resilience gradually discouraged their closest rivals. Kevin Keegan's header virtually ended the Ipswich challenge and set up the final run-in to the title.

In the European Cup final Liverpool produced surely their best display of the season, emphasised by the quality of their opening goal. Callaghan's tackle in midfield won possession in a key area and the veteran midfield player exploited it. His instant pass allowed Heighway time to control while his own overlapping run created a moment's uncertainty in the Moenchengladbach defence. Heighway in turn produced a positive run which drew opponents towards him before he played the ball into a space that McDermott, at the end of a run from deep, would fill first. He only had to carry the ball forward a couple of yards before sliding in a goal of chilling efficiency.

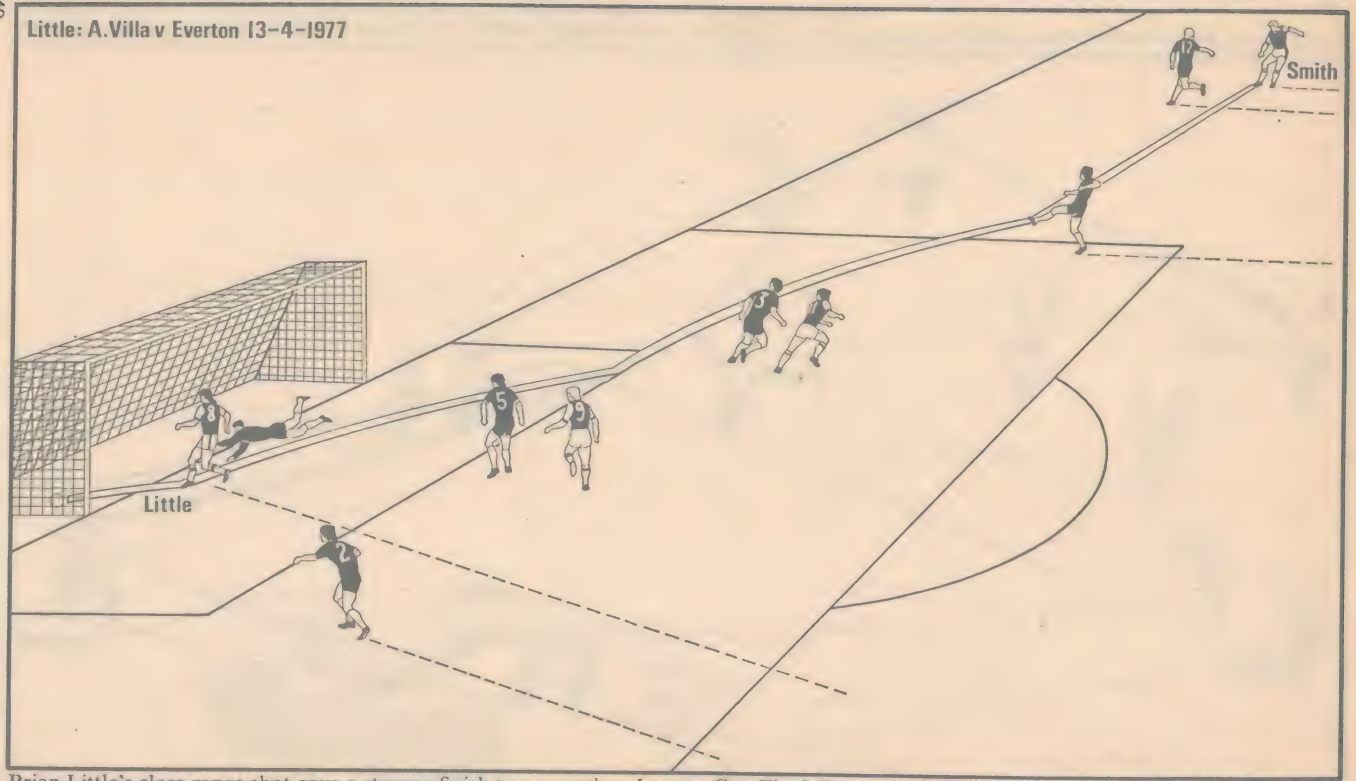
Efficiency was rarely a quality exhibited in defence by Tottenham Hotspur. A 5-0 defeat at Maine Road in May made certain their relegation after 27 years in Division One. Peter Barnes claimed the third after slipping one defender and confronting Pat Jennings. The goalkeeper, who had done more than any single player to keep Spurs afloat, reacted amazingly to the first dummy but was left powerless by a second shrug of the shoulders from a brilliant young player who found it difficult to win a regular place in one of the League's most fluent attacks.

Arguably the most emotive game of the season took place at Wrexham. The home side needed but a single point to gain promotion to Division Two for the first time in their history. Two goals down, that place seemed assured when Wrexham equalised in a dramatic second half. Yet in the game's last breath Harkouk put Palace ahead to create a situation in which Wrexham still needed a point from their last match to go up. Yet there was still time for Jeff Bourne to score the most crucial goal of the game which gave Palace a better goal difference. Wrexham now had to win the final game; it was beyond them and Palace were promoted.

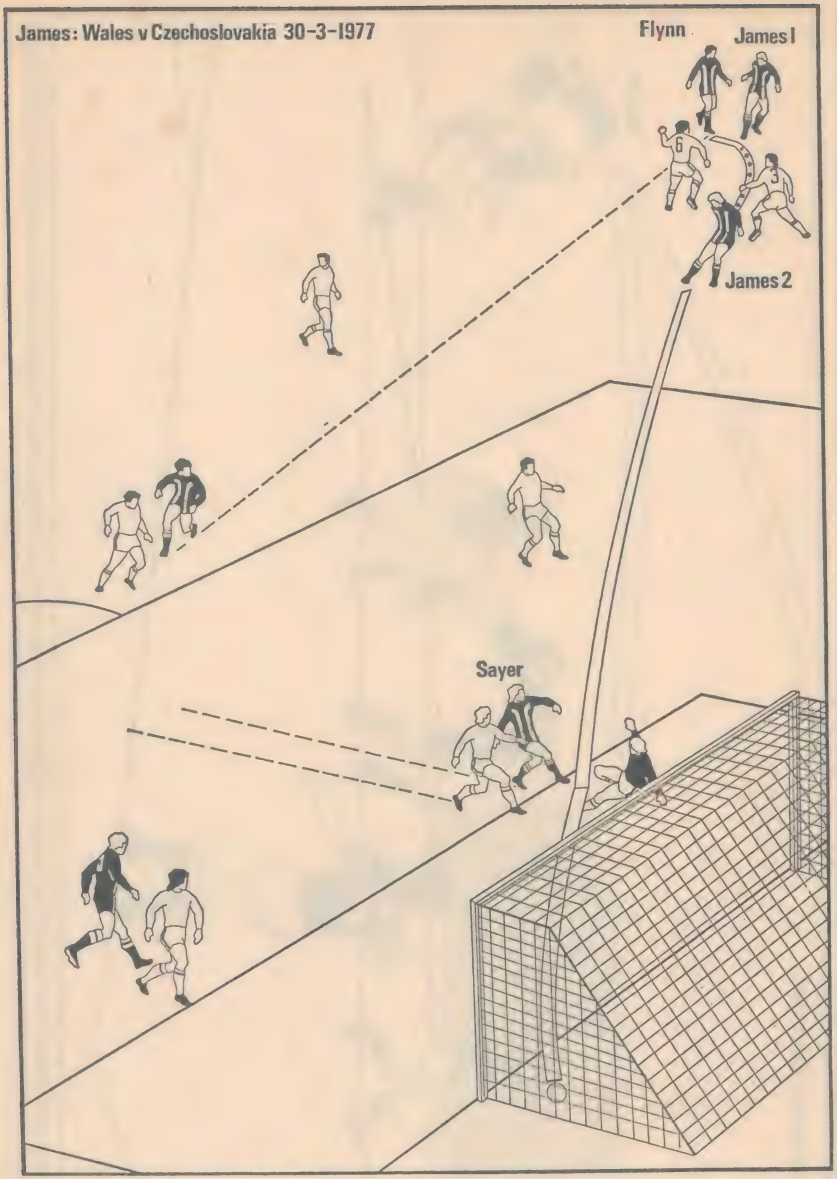
The sheer fortuity of Jimmy Greenhoff's winner in the FA Cup final, his unwitting deflection of a Macari shot that was flying yards wide, obscured the personal triumph of the former Stoke player. His deft skills alongside Stuart Pearson gave United an extra ingredient, which turned last year's Wembley disappointment into triumph.



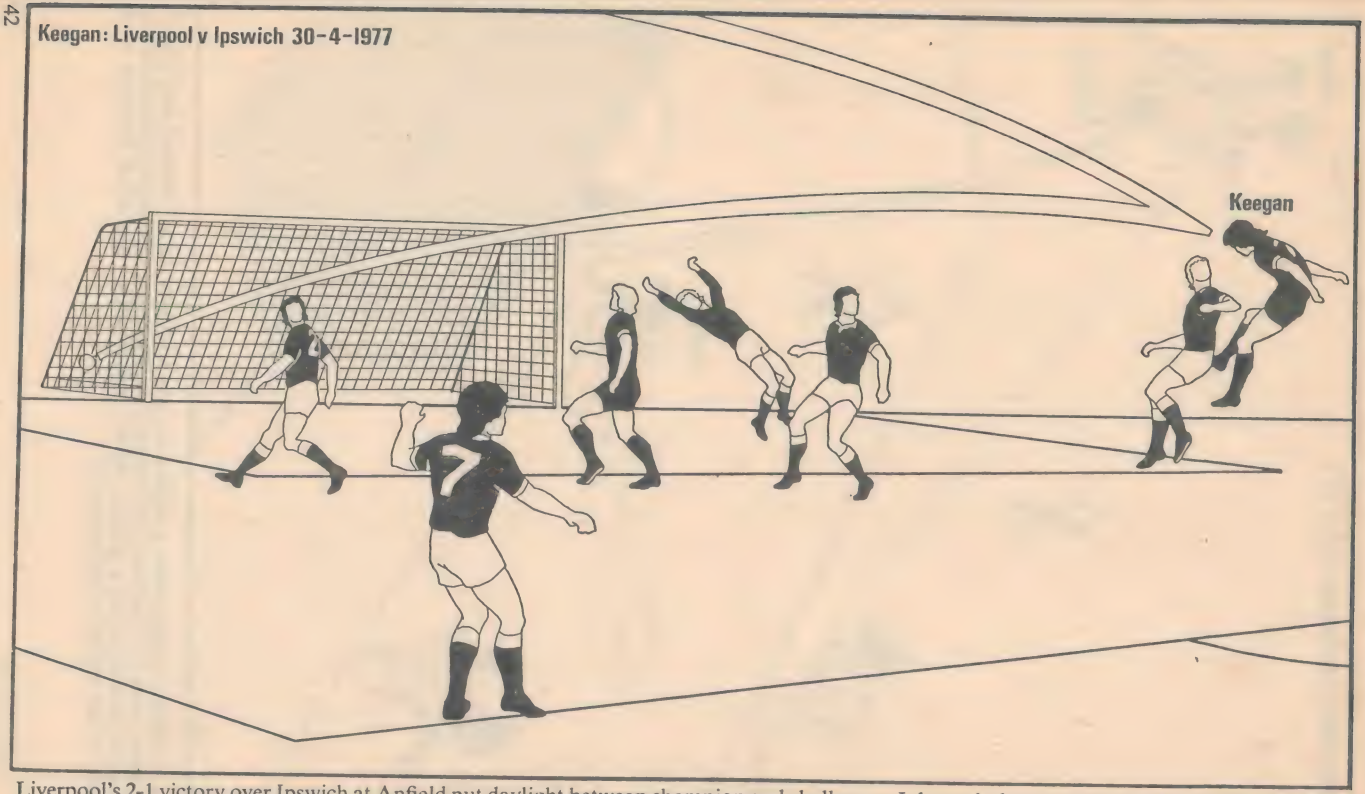
Causio's improvised flick opened a hole in the England defence which was never closed. Benetti manufactured a good angle for the left-footed cross and Bettega measured his run to perfection to provide a finish worthy of the build-up.



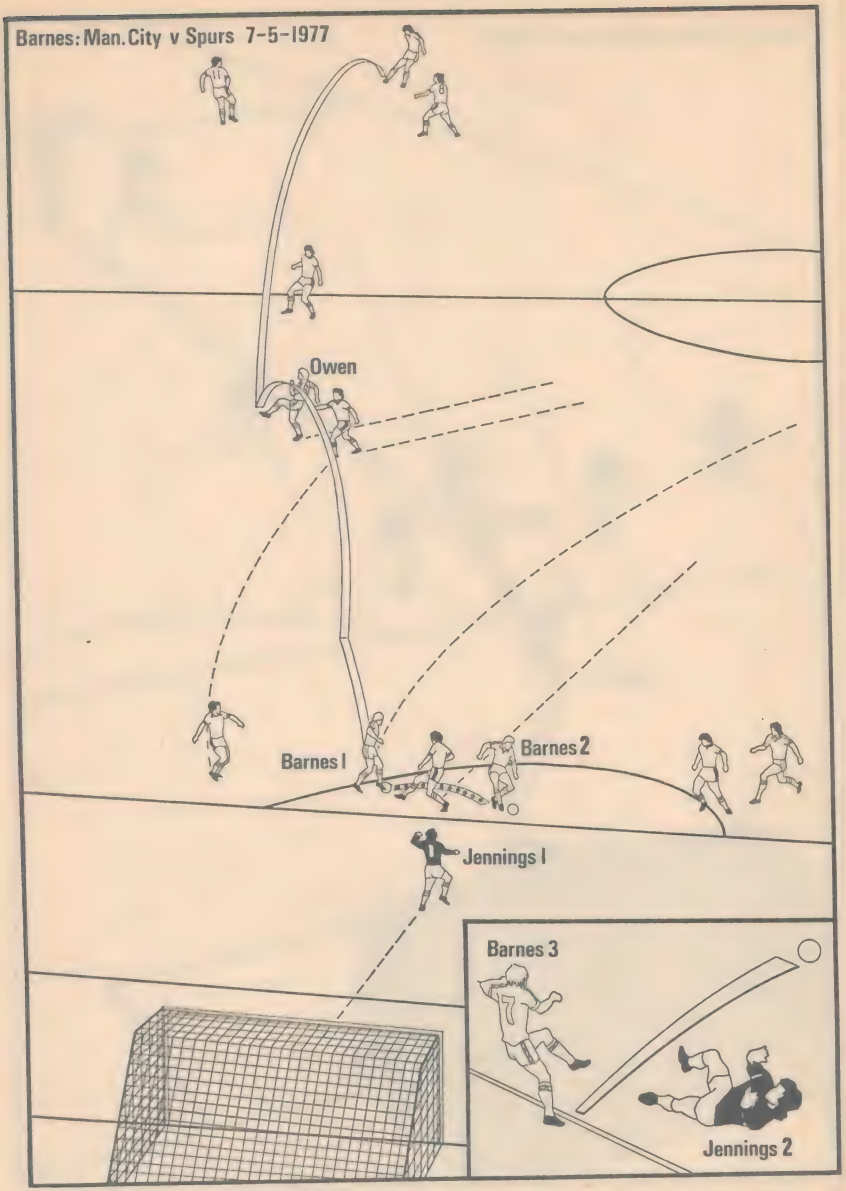
Brian Little's close-range shot gave a strange finish to a marathon League Cup Final. Darracott and Lawson contrived to leave to each other an innocuous cross; the only positive reaction came from Little, whose tap-in put the trophy on Aston Villa's sideboard.



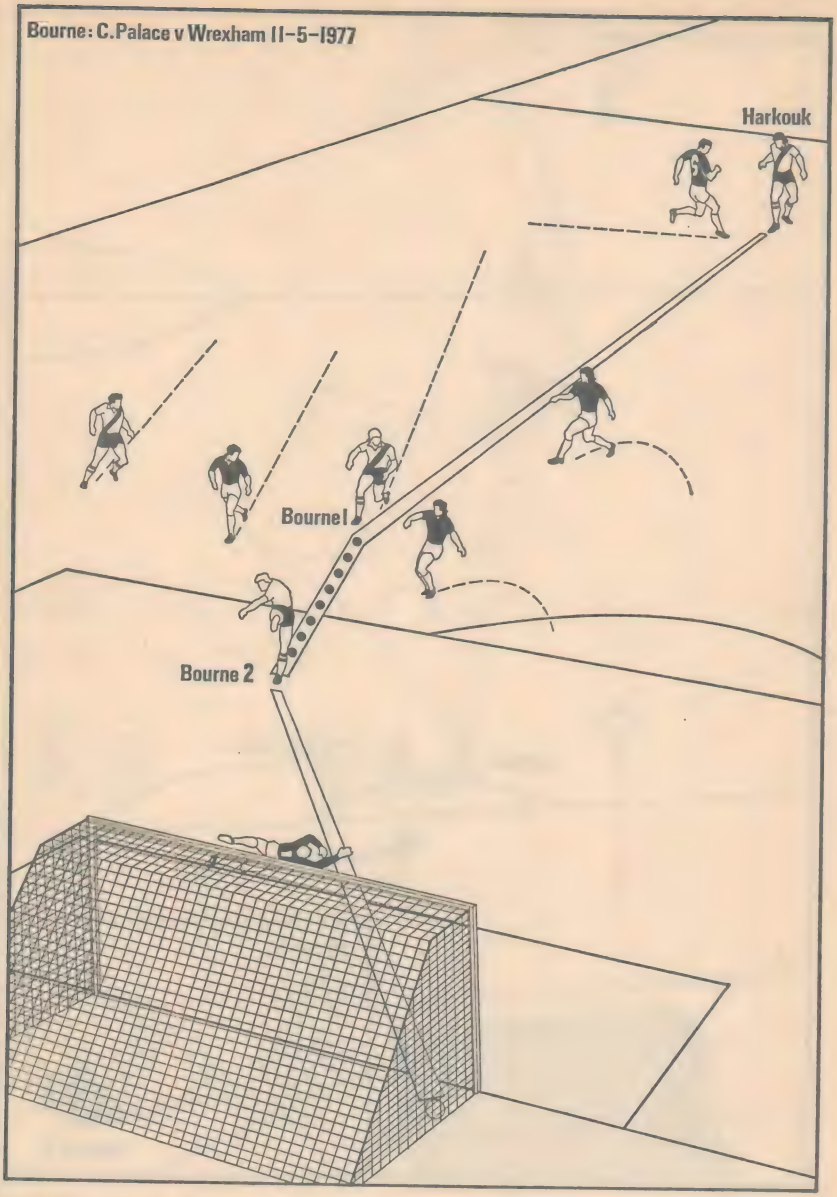
The position of Peter Sayer provided the key to Wales' weird opening goal against Czechoslovakia at Wrexham. He distracted the goalkeeper so completely that Leighton James's centre, following a quickly taken free-kick, rolled untouched into goal to set Wales on the way to a famous victory.



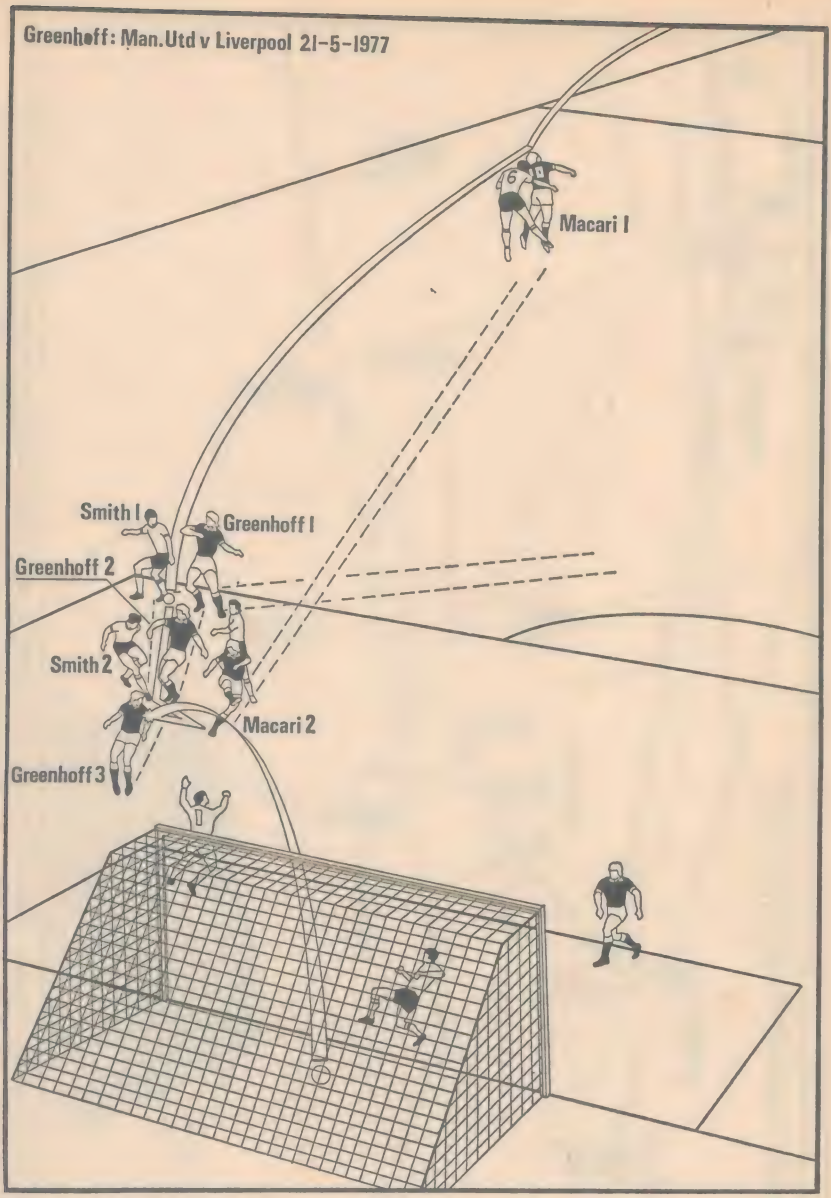
Liverpool's 2-1 victory over Ipswich at Anfield put daylight between champion and challenger. Johnson's deep cross turned Ipswich's defenders, and Keegan's spring-heeled header looped a precise arc over the goalkeeper for the winning goal.



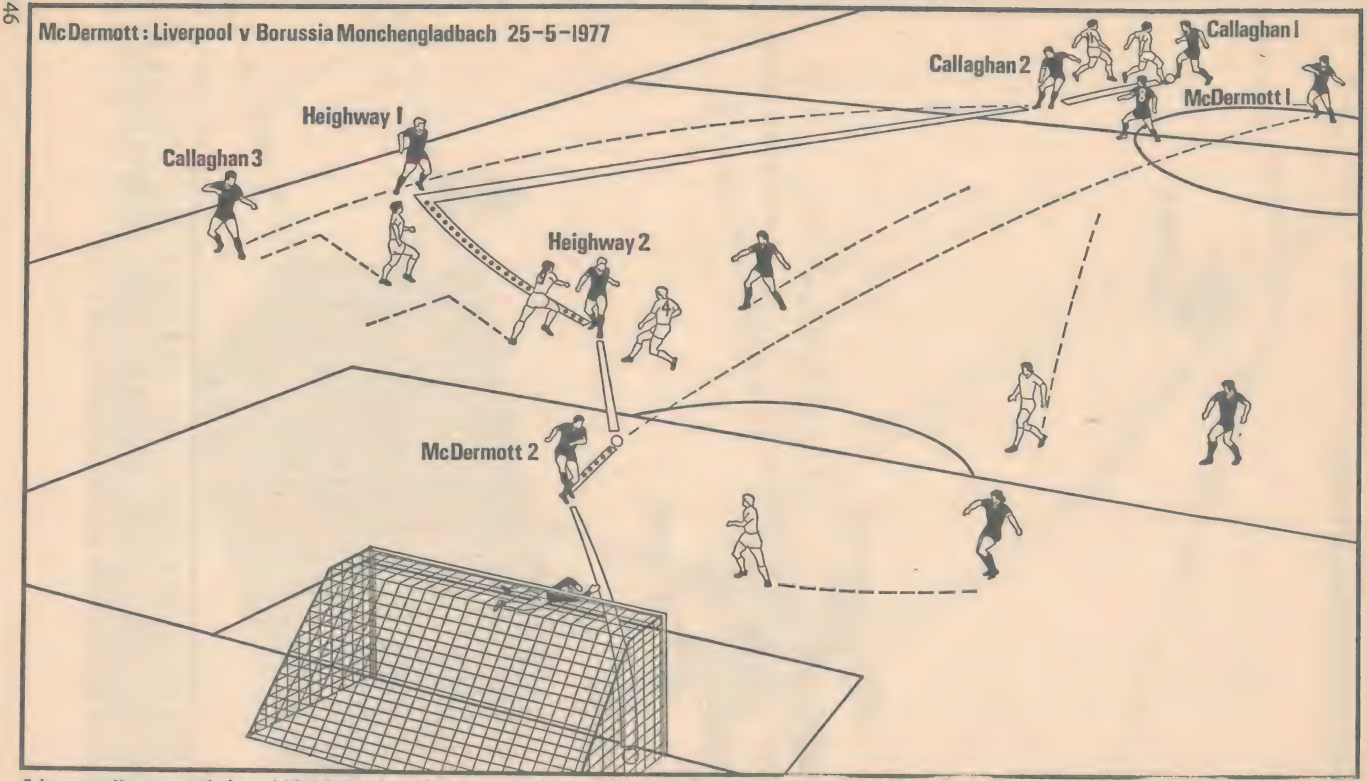
In the match that condemned Spurs to relegation Peter Barnes emphasised the difference in class between the top and the bottom of the Division. He slipped Naylor with ease to confront Jennings; the goalkeeper reacted splendidly to check one dummy but was totally beaten by a second and the brilliant chip that followed.



The significance of Jeff Bourne's finish to Harkouk's through pass was more its psychological effect than its execution. It gave Crystal Palace a 4-2 win and made their goal difference superior to Wrexham's. Wrexham thus needed two points not one from their final game, failed, and Palace were promoted instead.



The break that stopped Liverpool's treble. Greenhoff's harassing of Tommy Smith opened up a chance for Macari. His fierce shot would have passed yards wide of Clemence's left-hand post but struck Greenhoff's shoulder, lobbed over the stranded goalkeeper and past Neal's desperate attempt to keep it out.



Liverpool's strength in midfield fashioned a memorable goal in the European Cup Final. Callaghan, supported by Case, won the ball for Heighway and then eased his task with a supporting run. McDermott raced 60 yards to take the perfect pass and score decisively.

FOOTBALL AWARDS 1976-77

The Footballer of the Year

The PFA Player of the Year

The Manager of the Year

The European Footballer of the Year

FOOTBALLER OF THE YEAR

The Football Writers Association was founded in 1947, and it was proposed that the members should elect the Footballer of the Year at the end of each season. The first, recipient of the Award, a statuette of a footballer on a square plinth, was one of the all-time greats, Stanley Matthews. The Award, presented at a dinner held in London during Cup Final week, is given 'to the Player, who by precept and example on and off the field, shall have been considered to have done most for football during that season'. To this day, this Award has remained the most prestigious for any player, and the dinner in his honour is an important occasion for English football.

This season Emlyn Hughes became the third Liverpool player to receive the Award in the last four years, following Ian Callaghan in 1974 and Kevin Keegan last year. Hughes captained Liverpool in their historic year, when they not only won the League Championship, but also annexed the European Cup and lost narrowly to Manchester United in the FA Cup Final. Son of a Welsh father, Emlyn started his career with Blackpool, and has been one of the most consistent players in the Football League. He had a particularly outstanding campaign this term, and was rewarded with a recall into the England squad. A wholehearted, excellent all-rounder, who certainly deserves this accolade.

Bob Paisley is Manager of the Year

Bob Paisley of Liverpool – England's League Champions and European Champion Club – was named Football Manager of the Year for the second year running by the Bell's Scotch Whisky Football Managers Awards panel of 25 leading British soccer journalists.

Paisley, one of soccer's longest serving one-club men (he joined the staff at Anfield in 1939) received a cheque for £2500 at the Bell's Scotch Whisky Football Managers Awards luncheon at the Cafe Royal in London. The presentation was made by Mr R C Miquel, chairman and managing director of Arthur Bell & Sons.

Born in Hetton-le-Hole, County Durham, Paisley started his football career with Bishop Auckland, where he won an FA Amateur Cup medal, and then moved to Liverpool, where he served as player, coach, trainer, and finally manager, taking over when Bill Shankly retired. Many people thought that Shankly would be too difficult to follow, but in Paisley's first season the club won the League Championship and the UEFA Cup, and this year they retained the Championship and won the European Cup!

European Footballer of the Year 1976

For the second time in five years Franz Beckenbauer, the 31-year-old captain of Bayern Munich and West Germany, became European Footballer of the Year. Yet what might have been his greatest moment ended somewhat in anti-climax when the Germans failed to retain their European Championship title in the final against Czechoslovakia on the occasion of Beckenbauer's 100th appearance.

Further disappointment came after his club Bayern had won the World Club Championship against Cruzeiro of Brazil. Bayern, three-time winners of the European Cup, were knocked out by Dynamo Kiev, the team of Europe's 1975 Player of the Year Oleg Blokhin.

Bayern were without Gerd Müller, who underwent a back operation midway through the season, and though retired from international football since the 1974 World Cup finals managed to figure in the European ratings again.

British players did better than usual, thanks to Kevin Keegan finishing fourth; though having said this he was the only one to get any points at all! Runner-up was Robby Rensenbrink, the Dutch winger who plays for Anderlecht in Belgium, and third came the veteran Czech goalkeeper Ivo Viktor, who did much to help his country win the European Championship.

Review of the Season

The pre-occupation with the 'treble', and their eventually superb triumph in the European Cup, tended to deflect the spotlight away from Liverpool's retention of the League Championship. Struck down by injuries in every department bar goalkeeper at critical stages of the season, they responded magnificently to withstand persistent pursuit from Ipswich and Manchester City. Indeed Smith for Thompson in defence, McDermott for Callaghan in midfield, and Johnson or Fairclough for Toshack in attack did not paper over cracks; they cemented the whole.

If at times away from home Bob Paisley's side did not set the very best example one expects from champions – their away goals total of 15 was less than the relegated Sunderland and Spurs – their overall standard rarely slackened. Anfield's simple, repetitive lifestyle might have been a strong factor in the loss of the restless, inventive Keegan to Germany, but it produced a remarkable level of consistency. While it is still fashionable to complicate the product, Liverpool remained as champions on the time-honoured philosophy that, properly played, football is a simple game.

Neither Ipswich nor Manchester City could find that extra gear which turns good competitors into winners. Yet both contributed much to the season. The arrival of Mariner from Plymouth, after protracted and expensive negotiations, sharpened Ipswich's attack, while Woods added regularity to his wriggling skills on the flanks and Talbot reached international class as a combative midfield player. A new striker, Kidd from Arsenal had added to Manchester City's goalpower, though by the end of the season a succession of opponents had provoked him into a series of unseemly incidents. City finished second, perhaps most of all on the strength of a vastly improved away record.

But interest extended deep into this lengthy season – stretched because of the introduction of postponed matches on the Saturday prior to international calls. It centred on relegation, for three-up three-down continues to generate excitement as well as fear. A dozen clubs spent March, April and early May battling for their First Division lives; notable sides, too, like Queens Park Rangers, runners-up the previous season, but frustrated by injuries and a Loftus Road pitch which was almost destroyed by the worst winter in terms of postponements for 14 years; like Derby County who lost Dave Mackay as manager when his board refused to give him a vote of confidence and who lost confidence themselves under Colin Murphy, the former reserve team coach, who finally became Mackay's successor.

Derby were rarely out of the headlines. After a few weeks of Murphy's 'caretaker' reign, during which he paid out £300,000 for Derek Hales of Charlton, the board attempted to seduce Brian Clough back from Nottingham Forest. Clough considered, then declined. Murphy swallowed his pride, and finally kept his side afloat. Perhaps more significantly, the club also announced a financial sponsorship deal with Saab, which might have set a precedent to the economic survival of many other clubs.

Derby and Queens Park Rangers survived the relegation crush, as did Everton after a change of managership. Only weeks after signing Rioch from Derby and Duncan McKenzie (well-paid but unappreciated by Anderlecht) Billy Bingham was sacked – setting off a chain reaction which brought Gordon Lee from Newcastle as his replacement and an outburst of 'player-power' at St. James' Park, where the team wanted and finally got Lee's former assistant, Richard Dinnis as manager.

West Ham also survived, with 16 points from their last 13 games and a spate of goals from 'Pop' Robson, bought back from Sunderland as a saviour. For much of the year Bristol City's first season in the First Division for 65 years seemed as though it would not be followed by another, but Norman Hunter's arrival from Leeds added steel to zest. A point for City at Coventry, two days before the Cup Final, finally kept both teams in Division One.

But that same night defeat for Sunderland sent them down after Jimmy Adamson had breathed new life into a bickering, ailing club. Between November 27 and February 5 Sunderland played 10 League games without scoring. Adamson picked uninhibited teenagers out of his ranks and the side then slammed 16 goals in three successive home games. They seem well equipped for an immediate return, unlike Tottenham Hotspur, relegated after a pallid, uninspired season, and Stoke, who paid the price of putting pounds before players of quality. The selling of Hudson and Greenhoff balanced the books; the team scored only 28 League goals.

In that respect, Stoke suffered a harsh local comparison, Wolves, their neighbours, ensured their return to the First Division on a diet of the very fare absent at the Victoria Ground. Fifty goals from 20 games suggested the first 'ton-up' in Division Two for 13 years. But 84 in the end was enough for the Championship, a point ahead of Chelsea, whose young side responded in uninhibited fashion to economic necessity of promotion. Forest won the third place and another triumph in the managerial career of Brian Clough, who continued in his new vein of confining his outbursts to the secrecy of the dressing-room.

Bolton, for the second successive year, and Luton came closest of the also-rans, while Fulham captured the most attention. George Best and Rodney Marsh were brought back from North America by a new board who also chose to replace Alec Stock with Bobby Campbell. Best duly got sent off, had a late-night car crash, and skipped a few days' training, but performed tremendously and returned to International football. It was the last season, too, for Bobby Moore, also marred by a sending-off, but once again of chilling consistency. It was typical of the man that his last game, in a quite uncontrived manner, just happened to be his 1000th in senior football.

The simple innovation of goal difference for goal average made calculations much less of an academic chore, particularly in the remarkable finish to the Third Division season. Wrexham met Crystal Palace to decide the third place, with Wrexham needing just a point to deny Palace. Palace, however, burst into a two-goal lead. Yet Wrexham pulled back to equalise and the score remained 2-2 until two minutes from time. Just that length of time away from a Second Division place, Wrexham conceded another two goals in a desolate finish – Palace's fourth goal being particularly crucial because it made their goal difference better than Wrexham's.

Wrexham still had one more chance, if they could beat Mansfield in their last match. But they lost to a goal which made Mansfield champions, under player-manager Peter Morris. Alan Mullery made it an all-round triumph for young managers by guiding Brighton into second place, on the back of 32 league goals from the exhilarating Peter Ward.

Ron Atkinson, for so long a player with Oxford United, revitalised the other Varsity city as Cambridge United ran away with the Fourth Division. In another cut-throat finish Swansea missed out as Exeter, Colchester and Bradford City found reward at the end of an unremitting season in which their consistency did not guarantee them promotion until May.

But at all levels, the Football League still had to grapple with two jangling skeletons in the game's cupboard. Economically the news that only a handful of the 92 clubs were in the black at the bank did little to encourage the belief that the present structure could survive.

The cross the games continues to have to bear is on the terraces. If once again a minority blackens the reputation of a responsible majority, there are more than enough hooligans to do damage to football more lasting than their Saturday afternoon havoc to property and person. Manchester United and Chelsea were penalised to the extent of having their fans banned at away matches.

A third threat comes from the lure of lucrative careers abroad to top players. Keegan has gone, and though McKenzie did not flourish in Belgium, Chivers in Switzerland, Roger Davies at Bruges, and Ray Clarke in Holland have benefited European clubs as well as their own bank balances – to say nothing of the draw of the dollar, which is an ever-present temptation for a career in the United States.

Introduction to Club Section

This year's edition shows on 'page 1' of the club section an at-a-glance key to the Football League careers of the various teams, which we hope readers will find of value in pinpointing a particular season in the club's history. In order to achieve this and mindful of the fact that this page is as overcrowded as any in the book, it has been necessary to ignore two World War periods when the normal League programme was suspended, 1915–1919 and 1939–1946.

As to 'pages 2 and 3' of this section, these appear as last year. On 'page 4' despite lack of space again, any player who appeared during the 1976–77 season as either a non-contract player or associated schoolboy has been noted separately. All other players listed except in special circumstances are contract players. Regrettably it is not possible to include all players, though all contract players figure in the list.

When clubs have retained the League registration of a player who has not been on the playing strength for various reasons, these have been listed at the foot of the page. Details of their playing records can be found in earlier editions, of course.

Similarly with a few clubs, specific players who did not appear in the League side in 1976–77 might have been included without details of their previous history but again last year's edition will have covered their careers.

The vexed question of players ages is a continuing source of correspondence from readers. Unfortunately we must state again that since the majority of clubs are against the publication of their players' dates of birth, we prefer to accept the principle and refrain from including them. But at the same time, even if there was a majority in favour of reproduction of these ages we would still decline in the interests of the minority.

As far as height and weight are concerned, as Arsenal quite rightly reminded us, the players report for training after our press deadline and this information may be missing for certain comparative newcomers to the professional ranks.

We would like to thank the club secretaries who were kind enough to inform us of changes affecting their club and also those who again allowed us to reproduce their badges. We would particularly like to acknowledge our appreciation to Derby County, who gave us permission to use their badge for this edition, giving us 100% inclusion in this feature.

This year our final 'copy date' for completing information in this section was, with a few exceptions, June 15. Thus some additional details concerning transfers, changes of colours etc., will not have been recorded.

Extra Information: Goalkeeper Dickie Guy joined Wimbledon in July 1967 as an amateur and has made nearly 600 appearances in those ten years, missing only one game since 1970. He was accorded the rare accolade for a non-League player of being awarded a Rothmans Footballer of the Year Trophy in 1975 after a series of brilliant displays in Wimbledon's record-breaking FA Cup run which took them to the Fourth round. En route they beat Burnley, the first win by a non-League club on a First Division ground for 54 years and then held Leeds United at Elland Road before losing the replay to an own goal at Crystal Palace.

Guy earned nationwide fame by saving a penalty from Peter Lorimer in the first game but actually played better at Burnley.

Last season he repeated his acrobatics against Middlesbrough in a third round replay at Ayresome Park but despite several fine saves was ironically beaten by a David Armstrong penalty midway through the second half and Wimbledon lost 1-0.

Ian Cooke, a former club captain, is Wimbledon's longest serving player, joining as an amateur in 1963-64. He has played 750 games for the club, scoring over 360 goals in those 14 years and was awarded a testimonial last year. Played in the FA Cup matches with Burnley, Leeds and Middlesbrough. Ironically Cooke didn't play serious football until he was 17 because he attended Old Emanuel School exclusively a rugby playing one.

The Champions and How They Compare

Statistics, as we all know, can be made to prove almost anything, from the seemingly intangible ones like the balance of payments to the far more individually touching unemployment figures. And anyone whose mathematics master produced that algebra equation of two = one in the end of term 'freak out' will understand, too.

Football records are just as susceptible to seasonal trends as any of these more serious diversions. And changes over the entire post-war period affecting the game itself cannot entirely be reflected by a chart. But a number of interesting facts do emerge when comparisons are made. (See chart on next page.)

When normal football resumed in 1946-47 Liverpool were the first champions. Last season they retained the crown for the second successive year. Much has happened in the intervening years, and one fact is immediately apparent from the Anfield club's record in the initial and ultimate season.

While Liverpool won the 1976-77 title with two more points than they achieved in 1946-47, their goalscoring dropped from an average of 2.00 goals per game to 1.47, which represents the lowest figure in the post-war era for a championship winning team. In 1947 Liverpool won 13 times at home and 12 away from Anfield; last season they won 18 at home and only five on their travels. While they scored 47 times at Anfield last term they registered only 15 away from Merseyside compared with 42 both at home and away in 1947. Only 18 of their points came from away fixtures in 1977 in contrast to 28 in 1947. And while Liverpool were unbeaten at home last season they were beaten five times 30 years ago.

All these facts go some way towards underlining certain trends which have been obvious to us all in the progression of the game. Others, like the decrease in the number of professional players per club and emergence of first team squads are easily traced as well.

Liverpool in 1947 called upon 26 players—the highest figure of a championship side in the period. In 1966 they had a record low in using only 14. Similarly, there has been an increase in the number of ever-present players over the last two decades.

Goalscoring, which has declined as it has become a more difficult pastime in the modern defensive dominated era, reveals that Tottenham Hotspur reached the peak with 2.73 goals per game from a total of 115 in 1961. The two highest post-war individual scorers for a title-winning team were Ronnie Rooke of Arsenal in 1948 and Ray Crawford of Ipswich Town in 1962. Both managed 33 goals. Last season Kevin Keegan of Liverpool was the club's leading marksman with 12 goals only, again the lowest top-scoring achievement by champions.

Last season Liverpool had eight players who had been signed from other League clubs among the 12 who made the highest number of League appearances. But this was not the most because Chelsea in 1955, when they achieved the smallest total of points with just 47, had ten of the 13 most called-upon players signed from other clubs as well as Everton in 1963.

Tottenham in 1961 and Derby County in 1972 each had nine among their regulars from other senior clubs. At the other extreme Tottenham's team of ten years earlier had sported only two from other professional sides as did Burnley in 1960, though in the latter case both were from Irish League sides.

F.A. CUP 1976-77

Although Manchester United returned to win on the ground where they had lost a year earlier to Southampton, although their manager Tommy Docherty left Wembley after his eighth visit wearing the colours of the winners for the first time, still, in some curious way, United were losers in the 1976–77 FA Cup Final.

Certainly, they took the famous trophy back with them to Old Trafford: certainly (after an initial mix-up) Martin Buchan and his men carried away the victors' medals. Yet still all the rewards of victory were not theirs. They did not gain, in particular, the unmixed blessing of the neutrals.

This was no fault of Manchester United, due to no lack of enthusiasm and skill in their play, no cause for criticism of their fans (a well-maligned bunch who contributed absolutely to the sporting mood of Wembley). Manchester United took away the Cup amid enormous applause, but cheering that carried a note of sadness and regret for what the consequence of defeat meant to the losers, Liverpool.

A week before the final, Liverpool had retained their League title. Four days after this Wembley engagement, Liverpool faced the final of the European Cup. Thus, inevitably, even so vital a single game as an FA Cup Final was seen by most as merely part of a larger entity – the magical, impossible, never completed, seldom-contemplated . . . treble.

Thus it was inevitable that as Buchan moved triumphantly forward to seize the cup there were millions who felt curiously cheated. They may have lived no nearer to Merseyside than, say, Margate, but here was an opportunity to see sporting history made now smashed before their eyes. Such abstract notions, though, were for the neutrals. Around Manchester there was nothing but deserved jubilation.

The scenes inside Wembley, with the camps of both armies decked out in red, were magnificent spectacle on a day of sun-light to match. Some had paid as much as £45 to stand, £100 to sit as a record black-market reflected the enormous interest in this meeting of the country's two best-supported teams.

And, until half-time at least, Liverpool's golden vision remained as bright as the day. They had been the calmer, surer team. They had had the better chances. Kennedy and Johnson, Heighway and Keegan had all been positioned to score at or around Stepney's right-hand post – an upright of white, gleaming timber that Kennedy even struck with a header just before half time.

All Manchester had to console themselves with during the interval was discussion of Buchan's total authority in defence, young Arthur Albiston's brilliant and mature display at full-back (in what amounted to his first match at the peak of football) and a few tantalising glimpses of Macari and Coppell struggling up from beneath the Liverpool blanket.

The second half was different again. In the first minutes United were ahead. Greenhoff leaned to get his head to a long centre and deflected it like a stiletto into the heart of Liverpool's defence. Pearson was off like a pursuing dart, away from Hughes then his swift, oblique shot found the immaculate Clemence curiously wanting. A goal for United's heaving throng to savour; but only for two minutes.

Then Joey Jones, that amiable lunatic who seems to have stepped over the fence from the Kop into a niche in Liverpool's defence, went lancing up the left and delivered a hearty ball into the centre. The manner in which the terrier-like Jimmy Case cushioned the ball down and around into his own path – and then hammered it ferociously past Stepney was a demonstration of purest class. One-all . . . nothing decided . . . it all still to do.

United did it. Five minutes more and a ball driven forward at the right side of Liverpool's penalty area seemed to threaten little; for Smith, that granite man, waited beneath to collect and return. But he was challenged by Jimmy Greenhoff (unfairly, Smith later claimed, but to no avail) and the two staggered away leaving the ball to bounce. It was met as it rose by the foot of the flying Macari, arriving at the scene with the timing of Batman. Even then the shot had to strike the reeling Greenhoff to gain the necessary unintended guile to sent it looping beyond Clemence.

Liverpool, of course, still fought hard because that is their nature. Case alone might have had three goals in the half-hour left. But Manchester United, now calmer and more clever everywhere, stayed safe – for that was now in the fates.

A Final clean, swift and graceful with its play, well-received by its audience, and flawed only in that its result stood as an irremediable obstacle to history.

No such lofty consideration, of course, troubled the hundreds of thousands who packed the streets to welcome the Cup back to Old Trafford. Nor would they have occurred to the thousands of players who fought out their own little destinies in the earlier rounds – lit as always by fine and freakish matches; great deeds and moments of hideous error.

The traditional shocks began with the Third Round. Northampton fell to Leatherhead, Minehead beat Swansea, Kettering ousted Oxford United, and Northwich Victoria dismissed Rochdale – savage blows for all those needy clubs of the lower divisions. Tie of the round? That, surely, between Crystal Palace and Brighton, two of the most brightly ambitious clubs, managed by new managers to match, in Terry Venables and Alan Mullery. It took three matches, two postponements and seven goals to separate them – with Palace through.

In the Second Round confusion reigned, with iced and snow-bound pitches scattering the ties over weeks instead of an afternoon. When the fogs cleared, four non-League clubs were left: Matlock, after an incredible 5–2 win at Mansfield, Northwich Victoria, after beating Peterborough, and Kettering and Wimbledon, who had survived battles with their equals. Some of the once famous had failed to make it, though; Preston had gone and Sheffield Wednesday – leaving their 'home' at Hillsborough sadly vacant if needed for a semi-final.

A lot of might-have-been about the Third Round. Palace got a draw at Anfield before losing at home in the replay: Middlesbrough were happy, finally, to escape from Wimbledon after a dreary goalless tie, Notts County nearly beat Arsenal, Blackpool nearly did for Derby. But no doubt about Northwich Victoria, who added Watford to their victims, or Cardiff, who knocked out Spurs.

In the Fourth Round, Chester knocked out a Luton side then roaring along in Division Two, and Swindon held Everton before losing the replay. Wolves took two matches to knock over championship contenders Ipswich, and Southampton had to share six goals with Nottingham Forest before winning the replay to retain their hold on the Cup a while longer.

The only non-First Division side left after the Fifth Round was Wolves, and they were a shade lucky to beat little Chester one–nil. Derby did for Blackburn, Everton knocked out Cardiff, Leeds finished Manchester City, and a Mills hat-trick helped Middlesbrough demolish Arsenal. Then, when Southampton lost at Old Trafford in a replay, they surrendered the Cup . . . and there was no team left south of Birmingham to pick it up.

The Midlands followed the South into oblivion in the Sixth Round. Wolves lost at home to a goal from Eddie Gray – a player whose injuries seemed to have ended his career two years earlier. Out with Wolves went the Midlands other hope, Aston Villa – they took the lead at Old Trafford, but then goals from Houston and Macari put United through to join Everton and Liverpool, conquerers of Derby and Middlesbrough in games played simultaneously a couple of miles apart to two packed houses.

And so the semi-finals, which pitched the two Liverpool sides in together at Maine Road and sent United journeying over the Pennines to meet Leeds at Sheffield. United did it the easy way, they were two up in 15 minutes, Jimmy Greenhoff and Coppell scoring. Stewart Houston had a big part in the first goal – making his ill-luck, when injuring a leg in a League game two weeks later, even more hideously undeserved. But Liverpool, who had played a European Cup semi-final three days before, laboured against their city rivals. Everton twice came from behind to astonish a Liverpool team that seldom permits such liberties, and Everton even had a goal disallowed. But the replay ran truer to form. Liverpool, back in their implacable stride, went through.

Of all the tasks they set themselves in the final month of a fantastic season, that of beating United at Wembley should have been the easiest – if only in the sense that it was one match against familiar opponents in favourable surroundings. Yet that was the one that defeated them. Irony here, of course.

But consolation, too, in the thought that if a dream must be trampled, the feet of Manchester United's best men were talented enough to do the trampling with style.

THE FOOTBALL LEAGUE CUP 1976-77

But for a remarkable sting in its tail, the 1976–77 League Cup final between Aston Villa and Everton might have earned a place in the record books that much of its football did not deserve. The contest, spread through two replays and two periods of extra time, seemed destined to become the first major British final decided on penalty kicks.

On paper the emergence of Villa, with Ron Saunders reaching a League Cup final for the fourth time in five years, and Everton, now managed by Gordon Lee, a losing manager at Wembley with Newcastle the previous season, offered a final of promise. Villa had profited from a succession of home draws and a stream of goals from Brian Little and Andy Gray to win impressively against Manchester City, Norwich, giant-killers Wrexham, and Millwall. Queen's Park Rangers extended them and the semi-final into a play-off, settled decisively at Highbury by Little's hat-trick.

Everton had put aside the difficulties of a change in managership, anaemic League form, and a majority of away draws to beat Cambridge United, Stockport, Coventry in their one home tie and then Manchester United by three goals at Old Trafford. Their tenacity on opponents' grounds also saw them through their semi-final; after a patchy draw against Bolton at Goodison, Bob Latchford's header in the second leg brought another notable victory – form which the side sustained in the FA Cup.

Villa, too, arrived at Wembley boosted by an FA Cup run and buccaneering performances in the League. The competition between the proven attacking flair of Gray, Little, Latchford and Duncan McKenzie whetted the appetite. But the feast did not materialise. Instead, a muddled goalless draw – and no extra time for improvement.

Four days later at Hillsborough less nerves brought a more animated stalemate, not helped by an untrue surface. When a goal at last arrived it proved typical of the match; Kenyon, fighting a losing battle to keep his balance, turned a mis-hit shot from Deehan into his own goal. Yet with Everton's very last attack, Latchford got a vital touch in a frenzied goalmouth to earn extra time and, with no further score, another replay.

Now at a third venue, Old Trafford, Everton left out McKenzie, and began to make the utmost of their reprieve. Latchford's sixth sense inside the goal area enabled him to sweep in a header from McNaught; for the first time in the marathon, Everton led. For much of the second half it seemed enough, especially as for once the Villa medical team had failed to get a battered Gray fit.

Thus blunted, their only route to an equaliser stemmed from a succession of clouts from long range. Indeed with ten minutes remaining, the unlikely figure of their captain Chris Nicholl, more renowned for headed goals from set-pieces, found such a shot in his locker. From thirty yards the ball curled past Lawson. Palpably stunned, Everton immediately conceded a second goal to Little.

Two goals in a minute became three inside four when Lyons bundled in a corner via two attempts and the underside of the bar – a salvo of scoring that breathed life into a final that for so long had worn the mask of death. Yet at 2–2 the likelihood of the artificial respiration of a penalty play-off remained as the now uninhibited football continued into extra time.

But in its 329th minute, the match found its own highly improbable solution. Smith, the Villa substitute, galloped along the right-wing with the energy only a player fresh to the contest could muster. His low cross had only travelled a few yards before it struck Goodlass, who had checked back with Smith and deflected gently towards Darracott who waited unattended at the near post. Possibly confused by a call from the goalkeeper, the Everton full-back elected to let the ball run; Little, arriving on tired legs more out of habit than in expectation, found the ball at his feet five yards out and rolled in surely the softest goal ever to win the League Cup.

Ironically the earlier rounds of the competition had already produced one penalty play-off when Doncaster found the better marksmen from twelve yards after three games had failed to find a finish to their first round tie against Lincoln. Round two provided characteristic upsets when Sheffield Wednesday, still adapting to life in the Third Division, put out Wolves at Molineux. Less praised but equally worthy was the feat of Stockport of the Fourth in eliminating Blackburn of the Second at Ewood Park.

But the two most effective upstarts came from Division Three where Brighton and Wrexham undermined a succession of First Division opposition. Leicester City found the atmosphere at the Racecourse Ground as unpalatable as a number of European visitors and fell to a goal from Davis. Then Wrexham produced a daunting performance at White Hart Lane where they outskilled Spurs, leading at one time by three goals before winning 3–2.

Brighton's run started with a meritorious draw at Portman Road, and a late goal from the veteran Graham Cross despatched Ipswich in the replay. Alan Mullery's side needed no second attempt in the Third Round where two goals from Peter Ward beat West Bromwich Albion at the Hawthorns; in one of the season's most foolish incidents Willie Johnston was sent off in that match for aiming a kick at the referee. Derby almost provided Brighton with a third notable victim until status prevailed after another replay.

Bobby Moore was also sent off during the competition – in a Third Round replay against Bolton at Burnden Park. Moore was protesting at the amount of injury time being played by referee Kevin McNally during which Bolton equalised. Fulham staged their own protest and departed to the dressing-room, refusing for some minutes to play extra time until told that they would forfeit the tie. A more harmonious memory was left by Manchester United in the best goalscoring of the tournament, a 7–2 destruction of Newcastle; Gordon Hill in his most taunting of moods claimed three goals.

But in the end the year belonged to Villa and to Ron Saunders whose League Cup record as a manager might provoke inquiries from the Monopolies Commission. In the past his teams have been criticised for providing more function than flair, more work than wonder. Aston Villa gave the lie to such condemnation with their enterprise throughout the season. Sadly, for much of the longest League Cup final that style lay dormant. But though there was no light at the end of the Wembley tunnel, the switch was belatedly thrown at Old Trafford.

Review of Scottish Season

'Business as usual' more or less summarises the domestic season apart from the short-lived Spring Cup, dropped after one unsuccessful series and some rearrangements in the League and League Cup. There have been no major alterations and though many questions remained unanswered, the season was engrossing and entertaining overall.

The Premier Division produced interesting competition: in the early stages Dundee United held a good lead, with Aberdeen and Celtic in the hunt. As the season progressed, so did Celtic: the return of Jock Stein to full duty duly gave the team that touch of magic known so well; shrewd buying gave depth, stability and excitement to the team, and it was soon apparent that the expected and awaited rebuilding and reshaping had blossomed somewhat earlier than had been anticipated.

In the New Year it was soon clear that no one would catch Celtic. In the end, Rangers bull-dozed into second position, with Aberdeen and Dundee United finishing creditably, but unable to match the Old Firm. In the end it was Partick Thistle who slipped – well behind the leaders – unobtrusively into fifth position (Bertie Auld could well be satisfied with his first season in the Premier Division), whilst Hibernian had an uninspired programme, full of draws, in which their challenge subsided with barely a murmur.

Motherwell, too, failed to maintain their position. For a while they were among the relegation candidates, but, with many games in hand, they looked secure enough, and so it was in the end. This left Kilmarnock, seemingly doomed for most of the season, to be accompanied to the lower regions by either Ayr United or Hearts. Once more Ayr had a run of points when it mattered, and it was Hearts who could not raise their game. For the first time in their long history they were relegated, and they now look to Willie Ormond to see them back to the senior division in the shortest possible time.

The First Division was contested furiously at both ends. Dundee had hoped to bounce straight back to the Premier Division, but they found the competition severe and they faltered. The outstanding team was St Mirren, managed by the ebullient Alex Ferguson whose youngsters showed zest and invention, a desire to attack, and a pride in themselves. The crowds came flocking to Love Street, and there are many who hope that the team can hold its own and maintain its attractive play next season.

For the second season running Clydebank were promoted. They, too, have a side capable of finding a place in any company. It has been more than encouraging to see this team, which went full-time only last season, growing visibly in confidence and stature. A late run by Morton showed them to be a side to watch next year, though they came too late to put in a real challenge.

The bottom of this division produced a struggle which was resolved only on the last day of the season. Falkirk were early candidates for the drop, and doomed in the later stages, but a fascinating situation developed in April, and the last games were played with three teams knowing that one of them must go down with Falkirk: in the event it was Raith Rovers, who lost to Morton in a breathtaking finish by the odd goal in seven, whilst East Fife and St Johnston scrambled clear.

Division Two was won by Stirling Albion, with Alloa joining them in Division One. Whether these two have the ability and know-how to survive in senior company will be seen next season, though some of the results against lowly teams during the season cannot fill their supporters with much confidence. On the face of it, there is not another Clydebank here. None the less, they are to be congratulated, Stirling for almost strolling into a vast lead and coasting home; and Alloa in a fine run in, when they held off solid challenges from Dunfermline and Stranraer, with Queen's Park not far away.

The number of teams in the Premier Division is still the question. Ten is not enough. The margin between a challenge for the top and the relegation zone is often wafer thin – teams cannot play their best if they do not know where they are! There has been much discussion and, indeed, there is no easy answer. A division with twelve teams, each playing each other four times, would give too many matches; but three fixtures between the teams means an unfair distribution of home and away matches; and there are snags in this – as has been seen in Divisions 1 and 2 this season. Eleven teams? It seems to introduce problems without really sorting others. Certainly the management has several proposals before it; no one seems entirely happy with the present arrangement, and a change looks likely for 1978–79.

The League Cup, too, has come in for some comment. The preliminary games at the beginning of the season in, good crowd weather, and when new-season enthusiasm is fresh, too often are meaningless except for the few: too often the section leader is clear well before the end of the preliminaries. There are suggestions for the competition to be later in the season, with the League getting under way to start the season. Something may well come of this – especially after the despoiled League programme in December and January.

This year's League Cup winners were Aberdeen, who defeated Celtic (in their thirteenth consecutive League Cup final!) with an extra-time goal. If Aberdeen were a shade lucky to win the final, at least they thoroughly deserved success after a firmly waged campaign. Their thrashing of Rangers 5-1 in the semi-final is certainly a piquant memory of the season – particularly to Rangers. Ally MacLeod brought a breath of fresh west-wind to the north-east, and Aberdeen's achievements should well please him even if he was disappointed at not finishing with a higher points tally in the League. For the rest in the League Cup, Stirling Albion appeared to their best advantage, losing to Aberdeen only in a third game after a two-leg tie at 1-1. Clydebank, too, showed their maturity, with Rangers needing four games in the quarter-finals to dispose of them.

The Scottish Cup ended with a final between Celtic and Rangers, on live TV. It was a rotten day, and an undistinguished final on a pitch made difficult and slippery by frequent showers, but on the whole the right side won. So ended a frustrating season for Rangers. Nothing quite went right for them, and although they could play as well as ever, they were inconsistent. By their own high standards it was a poor season, with nothing to show for it. At the same time, a number of new players have emerged, and Rangers can look forward to the future with confidence.

Other sides to distinguish themselves in the Cup were East Fife and the Highland League club, Elgin City – who were doubtless delighted financially with their last game in the competition, at Ibrox. Dundee held Celtic in one semi-final for seven-eighths of the game, and finally went down to two Joe Craig goals, but they held their own as they so often do, in the Cup, and had accounted for Aberdeen in the previous round. Hearts, who lost to Rangers in the other semi-final, also reached the semi-final of the League Cup. What was it that went missing for them in the League?

The Scottish Cup sponsored and live on TV! Many faces looked glum, and indeed there were rumblings about having football on TV at all. The low attendance at the final was certainly a combination of the weather and the fact that the game was on TV; and it cannot be denied that TV diminishes the crowds who attend the matches generally, but it can too often be forgotten that the vastly increased unseen audience has benefits to the game, and thus to the clubs and the players.

Publicity brings money to all branches of the game, and TV coverage brings interest to the home and makes fans of people who would never dream of visiting a game. It has been the experience of some lesser known sports and games that TV coverage has produced widespread interest, and there seems little reason to suggest that football is the loser overall. Perhaps those who look to the TV as a reason for their lost numbers would do better to examine their own playing records: attractive and successful sides have had less trouble in keeping the turnstiles moving.

We cannot forget in this context the disturbing increase in bad behaviour in the crowds. Many are driven from the games by an unwillingness to risk being caught up in violence. The police do a wonderful job as far as they are allowed to, but they cannot succeed until they have full support from the clubs, the players, and the vast majority of the fans who go to the games to watch football. Some way must be found to remove from the crowds those whose delight is simply to disrupt whatever others are enjoying.

Willie Ormond has now ended a successful spell as manager of Scotland. He can look back on a distinguished record with the national side – a good and undefeated run in the last World Cup finals, a whitewash of the other countries in last year's home championship, and a series of sound results through the years, ending with a good win in a friendly against Sweden. His unassuming manner and complete dedication to the job have won him friends and much respect the world over; he has been an excellent ambassador for Scottish Football.

The international scene is now dominated by the qualifying stages for the next World Cup. We lost to Czechoslovakia after a good defensive first half, and then defeated Wales at Hampden. It looked as if we should have much difficulty in achieving a finals place, but Wales' magnificent victory over Czechoslovakia has made the section very open: somehow we can see our chances increased by this victory though both remaining games are hard enough, and neither of our opponents can be expected to give an inch. It is, however, at least up to us: we do not have to depend on the efforts of others in games in which we are not playing. This seems an opportune moment to wish the new team manager Ally MacLeod, and his players good luck and success in the coming year. He made an encouraging start, winning the British International Championship and enjoying a promising tour in South America.

DIXIE DEAN

the life of a goal scoring legend

Nick Walsh

The official biography of one of the greatest soccer stars of all time – the brilliant Everton centre-forward who at just 21 years old scored 60 League goals in a season. During his thirteen years at Goodison he broke record after record and is idolised to this day by fans who claim that no-one in the modern game comes anywhere near his greatness.

A fascinating book and one that no soccer fan should miss.

Scottish Stars of the Past

BAXTER, Jim (1939–) Raith Rovers, Rangers, Sunderland, Nottingham Forest, Rangers, and Scotland. Elegant midfield player with a superb left foot. His genius on the field was never matched by his controversial behaviour off it. Forest paid Sunderland £100,000 for him in 1967; eighteen months and 48 games later, he left on a free transfer. In retrospect, his career never really recovered from the moment he broke a leg playing for Rangers in 1964. He won 34 caps, and scored both goals in Scotland's Wembley win in 1963. Made 347 Scottish and Football League appearances.

BUSBY, Sir Matt (1910–) Manchester City, Liverpool and Scotland. A distinguished wing-half whose playing feats have nevertheless paled in comparison with his managerial achievements at Manchester United. He won a Cup winners' medal in 1934; the same year he gained his only Scottish cap. Made 317 League appearances. Under his managership, United triumphed in five League Championships, two FA Cups, and the European Cup. He was knighted in 1968 and the following January retired after 23 years in charge. Now a director at Old Trafford.

EVANS, Bobby (1928–) Celtic, Chelsea, Newport County, Morton, Third Lanark, Raith Rovers, and Scotland. First at right-half then at the centre of the defence, Evans, red-haired and forceful, won 48 caps. In a 16-year career at Celtic, he won League, League Cup, and Cup honours throughout the fifties. Moved to Chelsea and then had seven seasons with lesser clubs before retirement in 1968.

JACKSON, Alex (1905–1946) Aberdeen, Huddersfield Town, Chelsea, and Scotland. Gifted winger whose hat-trick at Wembley in 1928 spearheaded the success of the Wembley Wizards. His pace and opportunism made an immediate impression in English football, and he won a Championship medal in his first year at Huddersfield. He played in their losing sides at Wembley in 1928 and 1930. Left Chelsea after a dispute and went out of League football at 27. Killed in a road crash in North Africa. Made 278 League appearances, scoring 100 goals.

JAMES, Alex (1902–1953) Raith Rovers, Preston North End, Arsenal, and Scotland. Diminutive inside-forward of classic stature. His two-goal display in the Wembley Wizards match established a reputation that preceded him to Arsenal in 1929. There, he master-minded success after success in the thirties with his incomparable passing and bewildering ability on the ball, despite being severely kicked in every match he played. Prejudice against 'Anglos' meant that he won only eight Scottish caps. 478 Football and Scottish League games, 106 goals.

LIDDELL, Billy (1922–) Liverpool and Scotland. Direct forward of great physical power who became Liverpool's greatest idol. Aggressive but always fair, he played a record 492 League games for the club, scoring 216 goals. Played for Great Britain in 1947 and 1955 (Matthews the only other player to do so). Capped 28 times. Combined his playing career with accountancy, and also served as a J.P.

MACKAY, Dave (1936–) Hearts, Tottenham Hotspur, Derby County, Swindon Town, and Scotland. Wing-half and later centre-back of legendary courage and determination who twice suffered a broken leg, but recovered gamely on both occasions. With Hearts and Spurs, he won every honour in the game before moving to Derby in 1968. There his commanding presence immediately lifted County into the First Division, where he continued to dominate match after match despite his advancing years. Later manager of Swindon Town, Nottingham Forest, Derby County, and now Walsall. 541 League games and 22 caps.

MORTON, Alan (1896–1971) Queen's Park, Rangers, and Scotland. A winger only 5ft 4in. tall and nicknamed the 'Wee Blue Devil', Morton was the highest paid player of his day. Totally elusive, but always direct and alive to the needs of his team, he was a master crosser of the ball. His crosses led to all three of Alec Jackson's goals in the Wembley Wizards match. In an international career from 1920 to 1932 he missed only one game, winning 31 caps. Made around 500 Scottish League appearances and won nine Championship medals.

SHANKLY, Bill (1915–) Carlisle United, Preston North End, and Scotland. Superbly fit and wholly dedicated wing-half who brought the same qualities to bear in a distinguished managerial career. Won a Cup medal in 1938. Made 312 League appearances and won five caps just before the war. Learned the job of manager at Carlisle, Grimsby, Workington and Huddersfield before joining Liverpool in 1959. At Anfield his relentless drive and enthusiasm have fashioned three League Championship winning sides and a club that has rarely been out of the running for honours. He retired after the 1974 Cup Final.

YOUNG, George (1922–) Rangers and Scotland. Massive defender who despite his six-foot, 15-stone frame had the balance and nimbleness of a much smaller man. Regular at either right-back or centre-half for Scotland, he won 53 caps, many of them as captain. Made 293 League appearances for Rangers, winning six League Championship, four Cup, and two League Cup medals. Later managed Third Lanark and Scotland.

IRISH AND WELSH FOOTBALL

Review of the season in Northern Ireland

Honours lists and all the important statistics for Northern Ireland and Wales

Irish Football 1976-77

By Malcolm Brodie

Northern Ireland's soccer authorities, perturbed at the lack of success and, more important, fighting spirit, took a bold, imaginative step when they appointed Danny Blanchflower, captain of Tottenham Hotspur's double winning team, as manager in succession to Dave Clements, who had joined New York Cosmos.

Everyone voiced unanimous approval and it was apparent that Danny was their boy. They have been proved correct, too, for he has brought not only perceptive leadership but flair to the set-up, established a pattern, simple and basic, with the emphasis very much on attack.

And, although Northern Ireland finished as 'Wooden spoonists' in the British Championship series, the performance, apart from that against the winners Scotland at Hampden Park, Glasgow, gives hope for the future with England fortunate to triumph 2-1 and second placed Wales held to a 1-1 draw. Lack of striking power, however, remains a problem.

Now Blanchflower switches his attention to the World Cup series and, after the 2-2 draw with Holland in Rotterdam, he looks forward with confidence but complete realism to the forthcoming games against Group opponents Iceland, Holland, and Belgium, all of them at Windsor Park, Belfast.

'Holland and Belgium are exceedingly powerful soccer nations. Yet, you never can tell what might happen if we get on one of our surprise days which crop up occasionally, at Windsor,' said Danny, who agreed to accept the national post, a part-time one for two years.

Domestically it has, generally speaking, been yet another highly successful season with football overcoming the many problems which plagued the Province for seven years. Ballymena United recovered from a fire which destroyed their main stand and social centre; Larne also suffered malicious damage to their stand at Inver Park while Distillery, homeless since 1971, when forced to evacuate Grosvenor Park at the height of the civil unrest, obtained a new stadium at Lambeg, Co. Antrim.

Liverpool, eventual European Cup winners, began the long, arduous road to Rome against Crusaders and Southampton, F.A. Cup winners, met Carrick Rangers who had defeated Aris of Luxembourg in the first round while Glentoran lost out by the odd goal against F.C. Basle in the UEFA Cup. All these matches, and the internationals, passed without incident.

Glentoran dominated the local season, winning the Irish League Championship, Ulster and Hennessy Gold Cups, and completed a bonanza period after which Bobby McGregor decided because of business commitments to relinquish the managership, but will continue as physiotherapist, a post he also occupies in the Northern Ireland international set-up.

Linfield, the other member of Belfast's 'Big Two' had a disappointing spell, winning no major trophies – Coleraine beat them in the Irish Cup Final – with only the County Antrim Shield as a consolation prize.

Player-manager Roy Coyle, however, is confident that success will be achieved, as the side is composed of outstanding, exciting young players with many more in the pipeline. In fact, Linfield's Colts finished in second place to Stoke City in an international youth tournament at Haarlem, Holland. Other clubs competing were Feyenoord, Haarlem, Sheffield U., Telstar, RWD Molenbeek, and West Ham U.

In the European youth championship, Northern Ireland's squad, under Jackie Cummings, put up a reasonable show coming second in a formidable group which included the Soviet Union. Blanchflower, who has also laid great stress on youth, was responsible for the introduction of the Esso County Championship, a series being used to mould players for the European tournament.

All in all, quite a satisfying 10 months from most aspects, with the crowds improving considerably and the amalgamation of the Irish FA and League under one administrative set-up with Billy Drennan as the chief executive, improving organisational efficiency with all tournaments completed on schedule without the inevitable back-log.

Hungary went 13 years undefeated at home from after losing 7–2 to Sweden in 1943 until they lost 4–2 to Czechoslovakia in 1956. The Hungarians also had a run of 29 games before losing from their 5–3 defeat against Austria in May 1950 until they lost the World Cup final 3–2 to West Germany in July 1954.

Players who have won international caps for three different countries are Ladislav Kubala, capped for Hungary, Czechoslovakia, and Spain in the post-war period, and Alfredo Di Stefano for Argentina, Colombia, and Spain.

The Nordahl brothers Knut, Bertil, and Gunnar won Olympic Gold medals with Sweden in 1948.

In 1955–56 Fiorentina went through 33 Italian League matches without defeat.

Thought to be the longest match on record, Santos (Brazil) and Penarol (Uruguay) played 3½ hours from August 2 to August 3 after kicking off at 9.30 a.m. The match ended 3–3 after interruptions during play, however.

The first international played in Europe other than between British teams was Austria 5 Hungary 0 on October 12 1902. The first match in South America was between Argentina and Uruguay in 1905 and drawn 1–1.

The world record transfer fee is £922,300 for Johan Cruyff from Ajax (Holland) to Barcelona (Spain) in 1973.

FIRSTS IN FOOTBALL

Football League

The first five Football League games were played on September 8 1888. Bolton Wanderers were three goals up in about six minutes against Derby County, but were eventually beaten 6-3. Cox of Aston Villa scored the first 'own goal', giving Wolverhampton Wanderers an early lead, but Villa recovered to draw 1-1.

Huddersfield Town became the first team to complete a hat-trick of League Championships — 1924-25-26.

F.A. Cup

Tottenham Hotspur was the first Southern club to win the Cup when they beat Sheffield United in 1901. Spurs were then members of the Southern League and so were the first and only non-League club to carry off the trophy.

King George V was the first reigning monarch to attend a Cup Final. He saw Burnley beat Liverpool at the Crystal Palace in 1914.

David Jack (Bolton Wanderers) scored the first goal in a Wembley Cup Final. This was in 1923 when the crowd broke in to see the Wanderers beat West Ham United 2-0.

Extra time was first played in the Cup Final in 1877. Wanderers and Oxford University were drawing 0-0 at full-time, but Wanderers scored twice in extra time.

Internationals and representative games

The first representative game was played at Battersea Park, March 31 1866, London beating Sheffield by two goals and four touch-downs to nil.

The first official England v Scotland international was played at the West of Scotland Cricket Ground, Partick, November 30 1872, and resulted in a goalless draw.

Wales played their first international in 1876, losing 4-0 to Scotland in Glasgow.

Ireland's first international was against England at Bloomfield, Belfast, in 1882 when the visitors won 13-0.

Caps were first awarded for appearances in internationals in 1886.

The Football League played their first representative game in April 1891. It was against the Football Alliance at Sheffield and resulted in a draw 1-1.

England's first defeat on foreign soil in a full international was against Spain in Madrid in 1929 when the Spaniards won 4-3.

England's first home defeat by a continental country was at Wembley in 1953 when Hungary won 6-3.

Billy Wright became the first international in Britain to gain 100 caps when he captained England against Scotland at Wembley in April 1959.

Terry Venables was the first player to win international honours for England at five levels – Schoolboy, Youth, Amateur, Under-23 and Full International. He gained his first full cap in October 1964.

Floodlit football

The first-ever game by floodlight was that between two Sheffield Association teams at Bramall Lane, October 14 1878.

The first F.A. Cup tie under floodlights was a replay between Kidderminster Harriers and Brierley Hill Alliance, September 14 1955.

Floodlights were first switched on during an international match in England in November 1955 at Wembley – England v Spain.

The first Football League game under floodlights – Portsmouth v Newcastle United, at Fratton Park, February 22 1956.

The first full international played entirely under floodlights in Britain took place at Wembley in 1963 when England beat N. Ireland 8-3.

Hat-tricks

The first hat-trick in an F.A. Cup Final was that scored by William Townley for Blackburn Rovers v Sheffield Wednesday in 1890.

Equipment, etc.

Shinguards were first introduced and registered by Sam Widdowson of Nottingham Forest in 1874. The cross-bar first replaced the tape in 1875, and the whistle was used by the referee for the first time in 1878. Goalnets were invented and patented by J. A. Brodie of Liverpool in 1890 and were first used in the F.A. Cup Final in 1892.

Substitutes

First substitute in a Football League game – Keith Peacock of Charlton Athletic, at Bolton, August 21 1965.

The first instance of a substitute in a home International Championship game was at Wrexham in 1889 when a player named Pugh of Rhostyllen, took over from the injured S. G. Gillam in the Welsh goal against Scotland.

England's first substitute in a full international was Jimmy Mullen (Wolverhampton Wanderers) who took over from the injured Jackie Milburn after 10 minutes of the game against Belgium in Brussels, May 18 1950.

The first substitute to score in a Football League game was Bobby Knox (Barrow) v Wrexham, Division 4, August 21 1965.

Billy Smith was the first player to score direct from a corner-kick in a Football League game – Huddersfield Town v Arsenal, October 11 1924.

Limited Company
The first football club to form itself into a limited liability company was Birmingham City in 1888. At that time they were still known as Small Heath.

Penalty kick
The first player to score from a penalty kick in a Football League match was Heath of Wolverhampton Wanderers v Accrington, Division I, September 14 1891.

Professional
The identity of the first professional footballer may never be definitely established, but it was probably J.J. Lang, a Scot who joined Sheffield Wednesday in 1876 after playing for Clydesdale and Glasgow Eastern.

Tour
Oxford University were the first to send a football team on an overseas tour. This was in 1875 when they visited Germany.

Sunday Football
The first Football League game to be played on a Sunday was that between Millwall and Fulham on the morning of January 20 1974. Eleven other Football League games were played later the same day.

SOME OTHER RECORDS

The oldest player ever to appear in the Football League was Neil McBain who played in goal for New Brighton v Hartlepools United, Division 3(N), March 15 1947. He was then aged 52 years 4 months.
The oldest player ever to appear for any of the home countries in a full international was Billy Meredith. He was nearly 46 years of age when he played for Wales v England, March 15 1920.
The record for most appearances in the Football League during one season by a player over 40 years of age was created by Bob McGrory. In his last season as a player with Stoke City (1934–35) he appeared in all 42 First Division games. Bob was then 43 years of age.
The record for most consecutive appearances in the Football League was created by Harold Bell, Tranmere Rovers centre-half. Commencing with the opening game of season 1946–47 Bell did not miss a single game until August 1955 – a run of 401 consecutive Division 3(N) matches. Including F.A. Cup, Liverpool Senior Cup and Cheshire Bowl games, Bell enjoyed a run of 459 consecutive first team appearances.
Jimmy Dickinson created a club record by making 764 Football League appearances for Portsmouth between 1946 and 1965. In the Scottish League the record for most appearances for a single club was created by Bob Ferrier with a total of 626 for Motherwell between 1918 and 1937.
Billy Wright (Wolverhampton Wanderers) set up a world record by playing in 70 consecutive internationals for England, from 1951 to 1959.
Since substitutes were introduced into League football in 1965, Bristol City is the club that has played through the longest spell without calling upon one of these players – a run of 52 League games, 4 F.A. Cup, and 2 League Cup ties from February 1966 to April 1967.
The shortest player ever to appear in the Football League is outside-right Fred le May who was only 5 ft tall. He played for Thames 1930–31, Watford 1931–32, and Clapton Orient 1932–33. The tallest was Albert Iremonger, Notts County and Lincoln City goalkeeper 1904–27. He was 6 ft 5 in. tall.
The longest F.A. Cup tie was that in the 4th qualifying round between Alvechurch and Oxford City in 1971. This needed 11 hours (six games) before Oxford City won 1-0.
The longest single game on record is that between Stockport County and Doncaster Rovers, March 26 1946. In an effort to reach a decisive result this Third Division (N) cup tie continued for 205 minutes before bad light forced an abandonment.
Rochdale suffered 14 consecutive home defeats in Division 3(N) in 1931–32. This is a Football League record. After beating New Brighton 3-2 on November 7 1931, they did not get another home point until holding Barrow to a goalless draw in their second home game of season 1932–33. During that same period Rochdale suffered one run of 17 consecutive defeats (home and away) – also a Football League record.
In season 1905–06 Bristol City won 14 consecutive Division 2 games. This Football League record was equalled by Preston North End in Division 2 in 1950–51.
The Scottish League record for the longest run of consecutive victories was created by Morton in Division 2 in 1963–64 when they won 23 games in a row.
Leeds United were undefeated in a run of 34 First Division games, October 1968 to August 1969. This is a Football League record.
The longest run without defeat in a single season of Football League games is one of 30 matches by Burnley in Division 1 in 1920–21.
In the Scottish League, Celtic created a record by remaining undefeated in a run of 63 games – November 1915 to April 1917.
Blackburn Rovers hold the record for the longest run of consecutive F.A. Cup ties without defeat. From December 1883 to December 1886 they were unbeaten in 24 Cup ties and won the trophy three times during this period.
Only two players have scored two goals for each side in a Football League game. Sam Wynne did so in a Division 2 game, October 6 1923, scoring twice for Oldham Athletic as well as putting two through his own goal for Manchester United. Chris Nicholl (Aston Villa) scored all the goals in a 2-2 draw with Leicester City, Division 1, March 20 1976.

Arthur Chandler scored in each of 16 consecutive Football League games for Leicester City in Division 2 during season 1924–25. This is a League record.

Jimmy Cookson was the player who reached a first century of Football League goals in the shortest time. He made his debut for Chesterfield in 1925 and reached his century in December 1927 with West Bromwich Albion when figuring in his 87th Football League game.

The record number of goals scored by a player making his Football League debut is five – by George Hilsdon for Chelsea v Glossop, Division 2, September 1 1906.

The record for scoring the fastest goal in a Football League game is claimed by Jim Fryatt. According to Referee Mr. R. J. Simon this player scored for Bradford v Tranmere Rovers only four seconds after the kick-off, April 25 1964.

The fastest goals scored in the F.A. Cup Final at Wembley were obtained in the first minute. In 1928 John Roscamp put Blackburn Rovers ahead when he charged both the Huddersfield goalkeeper and the ball into the net, and in 1955 Jackie Milburn headed Newcastle United into a first-minute lead over Manchester City.

John McIntyre scored four goals in five minutes for Blackburn Rovers v Everton, Division 1, September 16 1922.

W. G. Richardson also scored four goals in five minutes for West Bromwich Albion, Division 1, November 7 1931, but this was even more remarkable because the feat was achieved in an away game – against West Ham United.

The record number of penalties missed by one side in a Football League Division 1 game is three. Manchester City (Fletcher 2 and Thornley) missed this number against Newcastle United, January 27 1912.

The most penalties scored by a player in a First Division game is three – Billy Walker for Aston Villa v Bradford City, November 12 1921; Charlie Mitten for Manchester United v Aston Villa, March 8 1950, and Ken Barnes for Manchester City v Everton, December 7 1957.

The record number of players from the same club in an England team is seven, Frank Moss, George Male, Eddie Hapgood, Wilf Copping, Raymond Bowden, Ted Drake and Clifford Bastin, all of Arsenal, played against Italy at Highbury, November 14 1934.

The England team twice included all Corinthian players in the 1890s but this cannot be considered a record because the Corinthians were a combined eleven, most of their players also appearing with other clubs.

In season 1925–26 Cardiff City created a Football League record by having as many as 17 internationals on their books. There were 9 Welsh internationals, 4 Scottish, and 4 Irish.

The England team that won the 1966 World Cup created a record for the country by remaining unchanged in six consecutive games – the quarter-final, semi-final and final of the World Cup and their next three games.

England's longest run without defeat is one of 20 games between 1889 and 1896.

The biggest championship winning margin for any division of the Football League is 15 points. Middlesbrough finished that far ahead of the runners-up in Division 2 in 1973–74.

The smallest number of players called upon by a club to complete a season of Football League games is 14 by Liverpool when winning the Championship in 1965–66. Five of their players were ever-present.

In the Scottish League, Dundee called upon only 15 players throughout season 1961–62. They also won the Championship that season and had five players ever-present.

The goalscoring record for a goalkeeper in a single season of Football League games was set up in 1923–24 by Arnold Birch of Chesterfield. In Division 3(N) games that season he scored five goals, all from penalties.

Six men have played in and managed Football League Championship winning teams: Ted Drake, Arsenal, centre-forward, 1933–34, 1934–35, 1937–38; Chelsea, manager, 1954–55. Bill Nicholson, Tottenham Hotspur, right half-back, 1950–51, manager, 1960–61. Alf Ramsey, right-back, Tottenham Hotspur, 1950–51, Ipswich Town, manager, 1961–62. Joe Mercer, left-half, Everton 1938–39, Arsenal 1947–48, 1952–53, Manchester City, manager, 1967–68. Dave Mackay, left half, Tottenham Hotspur 1960–61, Derby County, manager, 1974–75. Bob Paisley, Liverpool left-half-back, 1946–47; manager 1975–76, 1976–77.

In 1973–74 Leeds United created a Football League record for the longest run without defeat from the start of a season – 29 First Division games before losing 2–3 at Stoke. It could be said that this only equalled Liverpool's run in the Second Division in 1893–94 when they were unbeaten in all 28 games. Their 29th game that season was the extra 'Test Match' to decide promotion and relegation between the First and Second Divisions.

It is reported that Franz Beckenbauer will move to New York Cosmos at the end of the Bundesliga season. For a three years contract which will be worth over one and a half million dollars to the Bayern player. International Review of the Season

'The level of English football is so much higher than that of the England team.' The comment of Luis Cesar Menotti, the manager of Argentina, ironically during a relatively successful but largely irrelevant summer tour, provided an apt epitaph for England's season. With the target of cementing qualification for the 1978 World Cup, Don Revie's ever changing line-ups never produced the optimum of organisation and cohesion.

From a position of strength gained the previous June with the promise of the 4–1 win in Helsinki, England ended the year in the shadow of Italy in Group Two, needing now a major dose of the unexpected to gain a place in Argentina. Less surprisingly, Northern Ireland's hopes completely disappeared, to leave Scotland or Wales, direct rivals in Group Seven, as the only serious domestic contenders.

England's cause was not helped, certainly, by the pernicious back injury which restricted the captain Gerry Francis to a bare handful of First Division games all season. No amount of midfield permutations produced a convincing replacement.

Indeed, the disappointments of the year (the first in which Saturday League games were postponed prior to World Cup matches) were heightened by this whirlpool of team changes. Even the undisputed value of these extra periods of preparation seemed diluted by the constant alteration in personnel, several of whom, notably Wilkins, Madeley, Greenhoff, Brooking and Keegan, were selected in differing roles to those in which they had established their reputations.

The World Cup performances illustrated much of that confusion. England played a front line of four against Finland at Wembley; the end product was a 2–1 victory, goals from Tueart and Royle, which immediately put pressure on England in the key area of goal difference. Indeed the watching Jack Charlton admitted that he had been hoping for a substitute defender to protect that lead; exaggerated pessimism, perhaps, but it told volumes about a jittery, unco-ordinated England.

In Rome the changes were rung again – Hughes in defence for his first international for sixteen months, and Bowles, a returned prodigal for the first time since he took unofficial leave of Joe Mercer's squad in 1974. More confusion, and Italy forged their lead in the Group race with a fortunate goal from Antognoni in the first half and a brilliantly created second, by Bettega, after half-time. The optimism of the 3–2 win in New York the previous May foundered on the rock of Italian man-for-man marking.

The final World Cup game of the season, at home to Luxembourg, gave the opportunity to challenge Italy with goal difference. Though Keegan made a key early breakthrough, it remained 1–0 at half-time. Channon 2, Kennedy, and Trevor Francis spared more than a blush or two in the second half. But it was still not the sort of annihilation to re-direct the pressure to score goals back onto Italy. Indeed Italy's 4–1 win in Luxembourg and 3–0 triumph in Finland leaves England now needing an avalanche of goals in Luxembourg and a large victory against Italy at Wembley in November to reverse the position. On the evidence of the 1976–77 season it seemed less than likely.

Even in the non-World Cup games, fluid performances remained at a minimum. In September the Republic of Ireland, with ten First Division players, drew with ease at Wembley. Gerry Daly's penalty equalised an opening score from Stuart Pearson. A more painful reminder of England's unfavourable comparison with the best came in a February friendly against Holland. Jan Peters finished two sweeping moves in the first half in a match dominated from start to finish by Johan Cruyff. Clearly approving of the Wembley stage, he revealed not only his expected poise, balance and vision, but also ostentatious generalship as he cajoled his colleagues around the pitch like the leader of a formation dancing team who were never out of step.

In the Home Championship England were only at their best for part of the game they barely won in Belfast. Back at Wembley England slumped to two successive defeats. Though Dai Davies' trip on Pearson should have produced a penalty chance to equalise the penalty converted by James after a misunderstanding by Hughes and Shilton had forced the goalkeeper to bring down the Derby forward, Wales gave England a lesson in team play. In total control in midfield through their settled pairing of Mahoney, Yorath and Flynn, they created the first-ever Welsh victory at Wembley.

Scotland proved similarly superior, though England mustered greater resistance. A needless hand-ball by Neal brought a free-kick from which the giant McQueen headed Scotland in front. Dalglish put the finishing touch to a flowing attack in the second half before Channon converted a late penalty. It was a result which surprised no-one, except, perhaps, the Football Association who had taken totally inadequate precautions against the predictable pitch invasion which led to the smashing of goalposts and the decimation of the turf.

Scotland, who thus retained the Championship, were now under a new manager: Ally MacLeod in place of Willie Ormond, who chose to return to club football. MacLeod's first match, a goalless draw at Wrexham, provided a rehearsal for the World Cup clash that lies ahead. In the immediate context it was that point which made them outright domestic champions over the Welsh. Scotland, served again by goals from Dalglish (2) and McQueen, comfortably extinguished the challenge of Northern Ireland at Hampden Park.

It was an improving year for the Scots. It had begun with a 2–0 defeat in the World Cup in Czechoslovakia, with the wounds salted by the sending-off of Andy Gray with the defender Ondrus. Like Wales, their competitiveness stemmed from midfield with the options of Masson, Gemmill, Hartford, and Rioch; when the two teams met in Group Seven at Hampden an own goal from Ian Evans settled the match for Scotland. With Dalglish, a fit Jordan, and the recalled Willie Johnston, Scotland seemed to have the sharper possibilities in attack, though Johnston's comeback ended sadly and unjustly when he was sent off in Argentina on Scotland's summer tour – a repeat of the fate of an also-blameless Trevor Cherry during England's match there a week earlier.

If Wales were to be finally disappointed at their own failure to grab a share of the British Championship – they could do no better than draw in Belfast after scoring first – their hour came in the higher context of the World Cup. Czechoslovakia the European Champions, could not come to terms with the claustrophobic atmosphere of Wrexham's Racecourse Ground and were beaten by three clear goals. James, dropped from the original squad, was stung into a two-goal retaliation; Deacy, developing in Holland, scrambled in the other.

Northern Ireland's only moment of triumph came in their first match under Danny Blanchflower, a 2–2 draw in the World Cup in Holland inspired by the recall of George Best and confirmed by an equaliser from Derek Spence, on as a substitute. Yet from then on Blanchflower's fragile resources became totally exposed.

In Belgium there could be no repeat performance and in the British Championship came only the consolation of the first goals and the first point for two years. Finally, defeat in Reykjavik emphasised the side's complete lack of a goalscorer and put them, without hope, at the bottom of Group Four.

Blanchflower's terse reply at the inquest in Ireland was 'I can't invent players, if they are not there.' With the slender raw materials produced by his country it was a cry from the heart. The task of a manager, at all levels, is to produce the best whole from individual components and Wales continued to progress for this reason. Scotland offered evidence of a similar improvement. Northern Ireland failed. And so did England, and it did not really need the Argentinain team manager to make the point!

EUROPEAN REVIEW

by Leslie Vernon

Some three or four years ago, I, in the company of other equally over-optimistic observers hailed the arrival of 'total-football'. We welcomed this concept as an escape route from the over-defensive cul-de-sac which dominated football tactics. But since those days of Dutch 'wine and tulips' with the decline of Ajax, no new converts joined the ranks of 'totalitarians'. To groom a team of all-rounders, possessing the necessary skill, vision, and ability to function in any part of the field with confidence and efficiency, turned out to be too high a target for even the most adventurous of coaches. And as 'getting a result' has become more and more the overriding consideration, the mirage of a positive tactical revolution has all but disappeared. Instead, we now are obliged to witness the era of safety first – the 4-4-2 system. Although some of the apologists for this retrograde step – like the England team manager – say that this system can be an attacking formation, it is essentially devised to dominate the midfield by sheer force of numbers. I fully appreciate that if players are capable of running 90 minutes non-stop, they will be asked to do so by their coaches. In other words, in these modern times, every team fields 11 attackers and 11 defenders – depending on whether they have the ball or not. But within the confines of this inevitable development (more thoroughly trained athletes, lighter gear, lighter ball, etc.) there are still various options. The fact that most of the world's leading coaches choose the least adventurous one can be described as either 'realistic' or 'cowardly', depending on one's own prejudices. In the 'new' 4-4-2, even the strikers' role has changed subtly. No longer are they expected to score a hatful of goals. Their main duty – whether they are targetmen, quasi-wingers, or old-fashioned forwards – is to create space for the 'second wave', the midfielders. Kevin Keegan's play against Moenchengladbach was a perfect example of this ploy – indeed I am convinced that in the Paisley v Lattek poker game, Keegan's deployment as central striker was the winning ace in the hole. Almost immediately after the European Cup Final in Rome, travelling back to the hotel in the Liverpool coach, Paisley said that he would have won the FA Cup on the previous Saturday, if he would have played the same team at Wembley as in the Olympic Stadium. Callaghan in place of Johnson = a 4-4-2 with Keegan pulling out defenders from central positions and Heighway creating chances from the wings. I am taking Liverpool as the prime example, but they were basically still more 'positive' than the other European trophy winners, Hamburg and Juventus. One has to follow fashion, and when I go these days to an international football match, I do not expect to be entertained in the way I might be at an average League match. The build-up is slow, possession is the name of the game, and giving the ball away is considered the deadliest of sins. If the opposition have the ball, they are allowed to push it around in their own half, to their hearts' content, an interception takes precedence over tackling. Thankfully, Liverpool did not conform to this dull recipe in Rome. Miraculously, in the three days between the Cup Final and the supreme test in Europe, they transformed themselves from a typically 'English' team of 'runners and workers' into a sophisticated outfit. While preserving the virtues of their 'steamroller' qualities, they were also able to pace themselves more economically and use the ball with visionary perception. Indeed this was a tremendous game, the best European Cup Final for years. Terry McDermott's ability to find space created the first goal, and his finishing was too good for the clumsy German goalkeeper, Kneib. Early in the second half, when that misdirected Jimmy Case pass was picked up by Simonsen, the shot itself was a brilliantly executed formality. Although Bob Paisley felt that Tommy Smith's headed second goal was the turning point of the game, I would rather single out the moment when at 1-1, Stielike was clean through, only to be foiled by a breathtaking Clemence save. I couldn't help thinking at that moment, that it was Alex Stepney who won the European Cup for Manchester United nine years earlier, when he thwarted Eusebio, and here was another goalkeeper doing the same for Liverpool. Neal's penalty was merely a final nail in the German coffin, for on the day they were well below their best. One must remember that this very same B. Moenchengladbach side beat both Torino and Bruges away, and defeated Dynamo Kiev (conquerors of holders, Bayern Munich) in the semi-final. When Liverpool drew Crusaders in the first, and Trabzonspor in the second round, I had the feeling that this must be their year. St. Etienne were the only serious obstacle on their way to the Final, and against them, the rather fortuitous introduction of super-sub David Fairclough did the trick. Incredibly, Rangers fell to Zurich in Round One, and the Irish challengers also made their undistinguished exit at that early stage. I did not go to Amsterdam for the European-Cup Winners' Cup Final, but watched the game 'live' on TV in the studios of London Weekend Television. After 20 minutes' play, someone remarked that commentator Brian Moore was 'doing well'. There came the rejoinder: 'He is doing more than well just to keep awake!' That was a perfect summing-up of a disappointing match between such highly rated teams as Hamburg and Anderlecht. But the W. Germans, using the above described 'smothering' tactics, nullified the Belgians' individual brilliance, and neither Rensenbrink nor Vand der Elst could make any impact on the Final. Two swift counter attacks gave Hamburg the goals – and the trophy! Southampton made a commendable effort here, beating Marseille, and only losing to Anderlecht by the narrowest of margins. It was widely prophesied that QPR's style would be more helpful in European combat than in the domestic competitions. Indeed, they had an excellent run in the UEFA Cup, beating such noted opponents as Slovan Bratislava and Cologne, only to come unstuck in an extraordinary 'penalty-kick' sudden death affair in Athens against AEK. Bilbao defeated the Hungarians, Dozsa, 5-0, and AC Milan 4-1 at home. In the quarter-finals, despite expert predictions, they overcame Barcelona. But these unlikely finalists lost to Juventus on the away goals ruling, so the famous Italian club grabbed their very first European 'gold' after losing three previous finals. The UEFA Cup remains my favourite tournament, because the participants usually play with more freedom and apparent enjoyment than in the more prestigious competitions. But the popularity of all three Cups is on the increase, and no small credit is due to the UEFA for keeping a tight rein on discipline, crowd behaviour, and the refereeing, which has been less of a concern this term. During the recent UEFA meeting, several reforms were put forward in order to change the format of the European Cups. I feel that there is plenty of life in this particular 'old dog' yet – why 'muck about' with the present formula of such well-supported competitions?

The Treatment of Football Injuries

Harry Harris & Mike Varney

MIKE VARNEY, Tottenham Hotspur physiotherapist, and HARRY HARRIS, journalist, have written this invaluable book for those clubs and players who have to cope with injuries ranging from a simple muscle strain to a shattered bone or a ruptured tendon without the benefit of expensive equipment.

The whole spectrum of injuries is covered with easy-to-follow guides to the treatment of each. There is also a fascinating list of case histories and chapters on osteopathy, acupuncture and hypnosis.

The Laws of the Game and Decisions of the International Board that follow are reproduced with the special permission of FIFA, and the text is the official text as published by FIFA.

LAW 1

THE FIELD OF PLAY

The Field of Play and appurtenances shall be as shown in the following plan:

(1) Dimensions. The field of play shall be rectangular, its length being not more than 130 yards nor less than 100 yards and its breadth not more than 100 yards nor less than 50 yards. (In International Matches the length shall be not more than 120 yards nor less than 110 yards and the breadth not more than 80 yards nor less than 70 yards.) The length shall in all cases exceed the breadth.

(2) Marking. The field of play shall be marked with distinctive lines, not more than 5 inches in width, not by a V-shaped rut, in accordance with the plan, the longer boundary lines being called the touch-lines and the shorter the goal-lines. A flag on a post not less than 5 ft. high and having a non-pointed top, shall be placed at each corner; a similar flag-post may be placed opposite the halfway line on each side of the field of play, not less than 1 yard outside the touch-line. A halfway-line shall be marked out across the field of play. The centre of the field of play shall be indicated by a suitable mark and a circle with a 10 yards radius shall be marked round it.

(3) The Goal-Area. At each end of the fiel of play two lines shall be drawn at righ angles to the goal-line, 6 yards from eac goal-post. These shall extend into the fiel of play for a distance of 6 yards and shall b joined by a line drawn parallel with the goa line. Each of the spaces enclosed by the goal lines and the goal-line shall be called goal-area.

These shall extend into th field of play for a distance of 18 yards an shall be joined by a line drawn parallel wit the goal-line. Each of the spaces enclosed b these lines and the goal-line shall be called penalty-area. A suitable mark shall be mad within each penalty-area, 12 yards from th mid-point of the goal-line, measured alon an undrawn line at right-angles theret These shall be the penalty-kick marks. Fro each penalty-kick mark an arc of a circl having a radius of 10 yards, shall be draw outside the penalty-area.

(5) The Corner-Area. From each corne

(6) The Goals. The goals shall be placed on the centre of each goal-line and shall consist of two upright posts, equidistant from the corner-flags and 8 yards apart (inside measurement), joined by a horizontal cross-bar the lower edge of which shall be 8 ft from the ground. The width and depth of the goal-posts and the width and depth of the cross-bars shall not exceed 5 inches (12 cm). The goal-posts and the cross-bars shall have the same width.

Nets may be attached to the posts, cross-bars and ground behind the goals. They should be appropriately supported and be so placed as to allow the goal-keeper ample room.

Goal nets. The use of nets made of hemp, jute or nylon is permitted. The nylon strings may, however, not be thinner than those made of hemp or jute.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) In International matches the dimensions of the field of play shall be: maximum 110 x 75 metres; minimum 100 x 64 metres.

(2) National Associations must adhere strictly to these dimensions. Each National Association organising an International Match must advise the visiting Association, before the match, of the place and the dimensions of the field of play.

(3) The Board has approved this table of measurements for the Laws of the Game:

130 yards	120 Metres
120 yards	110
110 yards	100
100 yards	90
80 yards	75
70 yards	64
50 yards	45
18 yards	16.50
12 yards	11
10 yards	9.15
8 yards	7.32
6 yards	5.50
1 yard	1
8 feet	2.44
5 feet	1.50
28 inches	0.71
27 inches	0.68
9 inches	0.22
5 inches	0.12
3/4 inch	0.019
1/2 inch	0.0127
3/8 inch	0.010
14 ounces	396 grams
16 ounces	453 grams
15 lb./sq.in.	1 kg/cm²

(4) The goal-line shall be marked the same width as the depth of the goal-posts and the cross-bar, so that the goal-line and goal-post will conform to the same interior and exterior edges.

(5) The 6 yards (for the outline of the goal-area) and the 18 yards (for the outline of the penalty-area) which have to be measured along the goal-line, must start from the inner sides of the goal-posts.

(6) The space within the inside areas of the field of play includes the width of the lines marking these areas.

(7) All Associations shall provide standard equipment, particularly in International Matches, when the Laws of the Game must be complied with in every respect and especially with regard to the size of the ball and other equipment which must conform to the regulations. All cases of failure to provide standard equipment must be reported to FIFA.

(8) In a match played under the Rules of a Competition if the cross-bar becomes displaced or broken play shall be stopped and the match abandoned unless the cross-bar has been repaired and replaced in position or a new one provided without such being a danger to the players. A rope is not considered to be a satisfactory substitute for a cross-bar.

In a Friendly Match, by mutual consent, play may be resumed without the cross-bar provided it has been removed and no longer constitutes a danger to the players. In these circumstances, a rope may be used as a substitute for a cross-bar. If a rope is not used and the ball crosses the goal-line at a point which in the opinion of the Referee is below where the cross-bar should have been he shall award a goal.

The game shall be restarted by the Referee dropping the ball at the place where it was when play was stopped.

(9) National Associations may specify such maximum and minimum dimensions for the cross-bars and goal-posts, within the limits laid down in Law I, as they consider appropriate.

(10) Goal-posts and cross-bars must be made of wood, metal or other approved material as decided from time to time by the International F.A. Board. They may be square, rectangular, round, half-round or elliptical in shape. Goal-posts and cross-bars made of other materials and in other shapes are not permitted.

(11) 'Curtain-raisers' to International matches should only be played following agreement on the day of the match, and taking into account the condition of the field of play, between representatives of the two Associations and the Referee (of the International Match).

(12) National Associations, particularly in International Matches, should — restrict the number of photographers around the field of play,

— have a line ("photographers' line") marked behind the goal-lines at least two metres from the corner flag going through a point situated at least 3.5 metres behind the intersection of the goal-line with the line marking the goal area to a point situated at least six metres behind the goal-posts,
— prohibit photographers from passing over these lines,
— forbid the use of artificial lighting in the form of "flashlights".

LAW II.—THE BALL

The ball shall be spherical; the outer casing shall be of leather or other approved materials. No material shall be used in its construction which might prove dangerous to the players.

The circumference of the ball shall not be more than 28 in and not less than 27 in. The weight of the ball at the start of the game shall not be more than 16 oz nor less than 14 oz. The pressure shall be equal to 0.6-0.7 atmosphere, which equals 9.0-10.5 lb/sq in (= 600-700 gr/cm^2) at sea level. The ball shall not be changed during the game unless authorised by the Referee.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) The ball used in any match shall be considered the property of the Association or Club on whose ground the match is played, and at the close of play it must be returned to the Referee.

(2) The International Board, from time to time, shall decide what constitutes approved materials. Any approved material shall be certified as such by the International Board.

(3) The Board has approved these equivalents of the weights specified in the Law: 14 to 16 ounces = 396 to 453 grammes.

(4) If the ball bursts or becomes deflated during the course of a match, the game shall be stopped and restarted by dropping the new ball at the place where the first ball became defective.

(5) If this happens during a stoppage of the game (place-kick, goal-kick, corner-kick, free-kick, penalty-kick or throw-in) the game shall be restarted accordingly.

LAW III.—NUMBER OF PLAYERS

(1) A match shall be played by two teams, each consisting of not more than eleven players, one of whom shall be the goalkeeper.

(2) Substitutes may be used in any match played under the rules of a competition, subject to the following conditions:

(a) that the authority of the international association(s) or national association(s) concerned, has been obtained,

(b) that, subject to the restriction contained in the following paragraph (c) the rules of a competition shall state how many, if any, substitutes may be used, and

(c) that a team shall not be permitted to use more that two substitutes in any match.

(3) Substitutes may be used in any other match, provided that the two teams concerned reach agreement on a maximum number, not exceeding five, and that the terms of such agreement are intimated to the Referee, before the match. If the Referee is not informed, or if the teams fail to reach agreement, no more than two substitutes shall be permitted.

(4) Any of the other players may change places with the goalkeeper, provided that the Referee is informed before the change is made, and provided also, that the change is made during a stoppage in the game.

(5) When a goalkeeper or any other player is to be replaced by a substitute, the following conditions shall be observed:

(a) the Referee shall be informed of the proposed substitution, before it is made,

(b) the substitute shall not enter the field of play until the player he is replacing has left, and then only after having received a signal from the Referee,

(c) he shall enter the field during a stoppage in the game, and at the half-way line.

Punishment:

(a) Play shall not be stopped for an infringement of paragraph 4. The players concerned shall be cautioned immediately the ball goes out of play.

(b) For any other infringement of this law, the player concerned shall be cautioned, and if the game is stopped by the Referee, to administer the caution, it shall be re-started by an indirect free-kick, to be taken by a player of the opposing team, from the place where the ball was, when play was stopped.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) The minimum number of players in a team is left to the discretion of National Associations.

(2) The Board is of the opinion that a match should not be considered valid if there are fewer than seven players in either of the teams.

(3) A competition may require that the referee shall be informed, before the start of the match, of the names of not more than five players, from whom the substitutes (if any) must be chosen.

(4) A player who has been ordered off before play begins may only be replaced by one of the named substitutes. The kick-off must not be delayed to allow the substitute to join his team.

A player who has been ordered off after play has started may not be replaced.

A named substitute who has been ordered off, either before or after play has started, may not be replaced (this decision only relates to players who are ordered off under Law XII. It does not apply to players who have infringed Law IV.)

(5) A player who has been replaced shall not take any further part in the game.

(6) A substitute shall be deemed to be a player and shall be subject to the authority and jurisdiction of the Referee whether called upon to play or not. For any offence committed on the field of play a substitute shall be subject to the same punishment as any other player whether called upon or not.

LAW IV.—PLAYERS' EQUIPMENT

(1) A player shall not wear anything which is dangerous to another player.

(2) Footwear (boots or shoes) must conform to the following standard:

(a) Bars shall be made of leather or rubber and shall be transverse and flat, not less than half an inch in width and shall extend the total width of the sole and be rounded at the corners.

(b) Studs which are independently mounted on the sole and are replaceable shall be made of leather, rubber, aluminium, plastic or similar material and shall be solid. With the exception of that part of the stud forming the base, which shall not protrude from the sole more than one quarter of an inch, studs shall be round in plan and not less than half an inch in diameter. Where studs are tapered, the minimum diameter of any section of the stud must not be less than half an inch. Where metal seating for the screw type is used, this seating must be embedded in the sole of the footwear and any attachment screw shall be part of the stud. Other than the metal seating for the screw type of stud, no metal plates even though covered with leather or rubber shall be worn, neither studs which are threaded to allow them to be screwed on to a base screw that is fixed by nails or otherwise to the soles of footwear, nor studs which, apart from the base, have any form of protruding edge rim or relief marking or ornament should be allowed.

(c) Studs which are moulded as an integral part of the sole and are not replaceable shall be made of rubber, plastic, polyurethane or similar soft materials. Provided that there are no fewer than ten studs on the sole, they shall have a minimum diameter of three eighths of an inch (10 mm). Additional supporting material to stabilise studs of soft materials, and ridges which shall not protrude more than 5 mm from the sole and moulded to strengthen it, shall be permitted provided that they are in no way dangerous to other players. In all other respects they shall conform to the general requirements of this Law.

(d) Combined bars and studs may be worn, provided the whole conforms to the general requirements of this Law. Neither bars nor studs on the soles shall project more than three-quarters of an inch. If nails are used they shall be driven in flush with the surface.

(3) The goalkeeper shall wear colours which distinguish him from the other players and from the Referee.

Punishment: For any infringement of this Law, the player at fault shall be sent off the field of play to adjust his equipment and he shall not return without first reporting to the Referee, who shall satisfy himself that the player's equipment is in order; the player shall only re-enter the game at a moment when the ball has ceased to be in play.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) The usual equipment of a player is a jersey or shirt, shorts, stockings and footwear. In a match played under the rules of a competition, players need not wear boots or shoes, but shall wear jersey or shirt, shorts, or track suit or similar trousers, and stockings.

(2) The Law does not insist that boots or shoes must be worn. However, in competition matches Referees should not allow one or a few players to play without footwear when all the other players are so equipped.

(3) In International Matches, International Competitions, International Club Competitions and friendly matches between clubs of different National Associations, the Referee, prior to the start of the game, shall inspect the players' footwear, and prevent any player whose footwear does not conform to the requirements of this Law from playing until such time as it does comply,

The rules of any competition may include a similar provision.

(4) If the Referee finds that a player is wearing articles not permitted by the Laws and which may constitute a danger to other players, he shall order him to take them off. If he fails to carry out the Referee's instruction, the player shall not take part in the match.

(5) A player who has been prevented from taking part in the game or a player who has been sent off the field for infringing Law IV must report to the Referee during a stoppage of the game and may not enter or re-enter the field of play unless and until the Referee has satisfied himself that the player is no longer infringing Law IV.

(6) A player who has been prevented from taking part in a game or who has been sent off because of an infringement of Law IV, and who enters or re-enters the field of play to join or re-join his team, in breach of the conditions of Law XII, shall be cautioned. If the Referee stops the game to administer the caution, the game shall be restarted by an indirect free-kick, taken by a player of the opposing side, from the place where the offending player was when the Referee stopped the game.

LAW V.—REFEREES

A Referee shall be appointed to officiate in each game. His authority and the exercise of the powers granted to him by the Laws of the Game commence as soon as he enters the field of play.

His power of penalising shall extend to offences committed when play has been temporarily suspended, or when the ball is out of play. His decision on points of fact connected with the play shall be final, so far as the result of the game is concerned. He shall:

(a) Enforce the Laws.

(b) Refrain from penalising in cases where he is satisfied that, by doing so, he would be giving an advantage to the offending team.

(c) Keep a record of the game, act as timekeeper and allow the full or agreed time, adding thereto all time lost through accident or other cause.

(d) Have discretionary power to stop the game for any infringement of the Laws and to suspend or terminate the game whenever, by reason of the elements, interference by spectators, or other cause, he deems such stoppage necessary. In such a case he shall submit a detailed report to the competent authority, within the stipulated time, and in accordance with the provisions set up by the National Association under whose jurisdiction the match was played. Reports will be deemed to be made when received in the ordinary course of post.

(e) From the time he enters the field of play, caution any player guilty of misconduct or ungentlemanly behaviour and, if he persists, suspend him from further participation in the game. In such cases the Referee shall send the name of the offender to the competent authority, within the stipulated time, and in accordance with the provisions set up by the National Association under whose jurisdiction the match was played. Reports will be deemed to be made when received in the ordinary course of post.

(f) Allow no person other than the players and linesmen to enter the field of play without his permission.

(g) Stop the game if, in his opinion, a player has been seriously injured; have the player removed as soon as possible from the field of play, and immediately resume the game. If a player is slightly injured, the game shall not be stopped until the ball has ceased to be in play. A player who is able to go to the touch or goal-line for attention of any kind, shall not be treated on the field of play.

(h) Send off the field of play, any player who, in his opinion, is guilty of violent conduct, serious foul play, or the use of foul or abusive language.

(i) Signal for recommencement of the game after all stoppages.

(j) Decide that the ball provided for a match meets with the requirements of Law II.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) Referees in International Matches shall wear a blazer or blouse the colour of which is distinct from the colours worn by the contesting teams.

(2) Referees for International Matches will be selected from a neutral country unless the countries concerned agree to appoint their own officials.

(3) The Referee must be chosen from the official list of International Referees. This need not apply to Amateur and Youth International Matches.

(4) The Referee shall report to the appropriate authority misconduct or any misdemeanour on the part of spectators, officials, players, named substitutes or other persons which take place either on the field of play or in its vicinity at any time prior to, during, or after the match in question so that appropriate action can be taken by the Authority concerned.

(5) Linesmen are assistants of the Referee. In no case shall the Referee consider the intervention of a Linesman if he himself has seen the incident and from his position on the field, is better able to judge. With this reserve, and the Linesman neutral, the Referee can consider the intervention and if the information of the Linesman applies to that phase of the game immediately before the scoring of a goal, the Referee may act thereon and cancel the goal.

(6) The Referee, however, can only reverse his first decision so long as the game has not been restarted.

(7) If the Referee has decided to apply the advantage clause and to let the game proceed, he cannot revoke his decision if the presumed advantage has not been realised, even though he has not, by any gesture, indicated his decision. This does not exempt the offending player from being dealt with by the Referee.

(8) The Laws of the Game are intended to provide that games should be played with as little interference as possible, and in this view it is the duty of Referees to penalise only deliberate breaches of the Law. Constant whistling for trifling and doubtful breaches produces bad feeling and loss of temper on the part of the players and spoils the pleasure of spectators.

(9) By para. (d) of Law V the Referee is empowered to terminate a match in the event of grave disorder, but he has no power or right to decide, in such event, that either team is disqualified and thereby the loser of the match. He must send a detailed report to the proper authority who alone has power to deal further with this matter.

(10) If a player commits two infringements of a different nature at the same time, the Referee shall punish the more serious offence.

(11) It is the duty of the Referee to act upon the information of neutral Linesmen with regard to incidents that do not come under the personal notice of the Referee.

(12) The Referee shall not allow any person to enter the field until play has stopped, and only then, if he has given him a signal to do so, nor shall he allow coaching from the boundary lines.

LAW VI.—LINESMEN

Two Linesmen shall be appointed, whose duty (subject to the decision of the Referee) shall be to indicate when the ball is out of play and which side is entitled to the corner-kick, goal-kick or throw-in. They shall also assist the Referee to control the game in accordance with the Laws. In the event of undue interference or improper conduct by a Linesman, the Referee shall dispense with his services and arrange for a substitute to be appointed. (The matter shall be reported by the Referee to the competent authority.) The Linesmen should be equipped with flags by the Club on whose ground the match is played.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) Linesmen, where neutral, shall draw the Referee's attention to any breach of the Laws of the Game of which they become aware if they consider that the Referee may not have seen it, but the Referee shall always be the judge of the decision to be taken.

(2) National Associations are advised to appoint official Referees of neutral nationality to act as Linesmen in International Matches.

(3) In International Matches Linesmen's flag shall be of a vivid colour, bright reds and yellows. Such flags are recommended for use in all other matches.

(4) A Linesman may be subject to disciplinary action only upon a report of the Referee for unjustified interference or insufficient assistance.

LAW VII.—DURATION OF THE GAME

The duration of the game shall be two equal periods of 45 minutes, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon, subject to the following: (a) Allowance shall be made in either period for all time lost through accident or other cause, the amount of which shall be a matter for the discretion of the Referee; (b) Time shall be extended to permit a penalty-kick being taken at or after the expiration of the normal period in either half.

At half-time the interval shall not exceed five minutes except by consent of the Referee.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) If a match has been stopped by the Referee, before the completion of the time specified in the rules, for any reason stated in Law V it must be replayed in full unless the rules of the competition concerned provide for the result of the match at the time of such stoppage to stand.

(2) Players have a right to an interval at half-time.

LAW VIII.—THE START OF PLAY

(a) At the beginning of the game, choice of ends and the kick-off shall be decided by the toss of a coin. The team winning the toss shall have the option of choice of ends or the kick-off. The Referee having given a signal, the game shall be started by a player taking a place-kick (i.e., a kick at the ball while it is stationary on the ground in the centre of the field of play) into his opponents' half of the field of play. Every player shall be in his own half of the field and every player of the team opposing that of the kicker shall remain not less than 10 yards from the ball until it is kicked-off; it shall not be deemed in play until it has travelled the distance of its own circumference. The kicker shall not play the ball a second time until it has been touched or played by another player.

(b) After a goal is scored, the game shall be restarted in like manner by a player of the team losing the goal.

(c) After half-time: when restarting after half-time, ends shall be changed and the kick-off shall be taken by a player of the opposite team to that of the player who started the game.

Punishment. For any infringement of this Law, the kick-off shall be retaken, except in the case of the kicker playing the ball again before it has been touched or played by another player; for this offence, an indirect free-kick shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred. A goal shall not be scored direct from a kick-off.

(d) After any other temporary suspension: when restarting the game after a temporary suspension of play from any cause not mentioned elsewhere in these Laws, provided that immediately prior to the suspension the ball has not passed over the touch or goal-lines, the Referee shall drop the ball at the place where it was when play was suspended and it shall be deemed in play when it has touched the ground; if, however, it goes over the touch or goal-lines after it has been dropped by the Referee, but before it is touched by a player, the Referee shall again drop it. A player shall not play the ball until it has touched the ground. If this section of the Law is not complied with the Referee shall again drop the ball.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) If, when the Referee drops the ball, a player infringes any of the Laws before the ball has touched the ground, the player concerned shall be cautioned or sent off the field according to the seriousness of the offence, but a free-kick cannot be awarded to the opposing team because the ball was not in play at the time of the offence. The ball shall therefore be again dropped by the Referee.

(2) Kicking-off by persons other than the players competing in a match is prohibited.

LAW IX.—BALL IN AND OUT OF PLAY

The ball is out of play:

(a) When it has wholly crossed the goal-line or touch-line, whether on the ground or in the air.

(b) When the game has been stopped by the Referee.

The ball is in play at all other times from the start of the match to the finish including:

(a) If it rebounds from a goal-post, cross-bar or corner-flag post into the field of play.

(b) If it rebounds off either the Referee or Linesmen when they are in the field of play.

(c) In the event of a supposed infringement of the Laws, until a decision is given.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) The lines belong to the areas of which they are the boundaries. In consequence the touch-lines and the goal-lines belong to the field of play.

LAW X.—METHOD OF SCORING

Except as otherwise provided by these Laws, a goal is scored when the whole of the ball has passed over the goal-line, between the goal-posts and under the cross-bar, provided it has not been thrown, carried or intentionally propelled by hand or arm, by a player of the attacking side, except in the case of a goalkeeper, who is within his own penalty-area.

The team scoring the greater number of goals during a game shall be the winner; if no goals, or an equal number of goals are scored, the game shall be termed a "draw"

Decisions of the International Board

(1) Law X defines the only method according to which a match is won or drawn; no variation whatsoever can be authorised.

(2) A goal cannot in any case be allowed if the ball has been prevented by some outside agent from passing over the goal-line. If this happens in the normal course of play, other than at the taking of a penalty-kick: the game must be stopped and restarted by the Referee dropping the ball at the place where the ball came into contact with the interference.

(3) If, when the ball is going into goal, a spectator enters the field before it passes wholly over the goal-line, and tries to prevent a score, a goal shall be allowed if the ball goes into goal unless the spectator has made contact with the ball or has interfered with play, in which case the Referee shall stop the game and restart it by dropping the ball at the place where the contact or interference occurred.

LAW XI.—OFF-SIDE

A player is off-side if he is nearer his opponents' goal-line than the ball at the moment the ball is played unless:

(a) He is in his own half of the field of play.

(b) There are two of his opponents nearer to their own goal-line than he is.

(c) The ball last touched an opponent or was last played by him.

(d) He receives the ball direct from a goal-kick, a corner-kick, a throw-in, or when it was dropped by the Referee.

Punishment. For an infringement of this Law, an indirect free-kick shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred.

A player in an off-side position shall not be penalised unless, in the opinion of the Referee, he is interfering with the play or with an opponent, or is seeking to gain an advantage by being in an off-side position.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) Off-side shall not be judged at the moment the player in question receives the ball, but at the moment when the ball is passed to him by one of his own side. A player who is not in an off-side position when one of his colleagues passes the ball to him or takes a free-kick, does not therefore become off-side if he goes forward during the flight of the ball.

LAW XII.—FOULS AND MISCONDUCT

A player who intentionally commits any of the following nine offences:

(a) Kicks or attempts to kick an opponent;

(b) Trips an opponent, i.e., throwing or attempting to throw him by the use of the legs or by stooping in front of or behind him;

(c) Jumps at an opponent;

(d) Charges an opponent in a violent or dangerous manner;

(e) Charges an opponent from behind unless the latter be obstructing;

(f) Strikes or attempts to strike an opponent;

(g) Holds an opponent;

(h) Pushes an opponent;

(i) Handles the ball, i.e., carries, strikes or propels the ball with his hand or arm. (This does not apply to the goalkeeper within his own penalty-area); shall be penalised by the award of a direct free-kick to be taken by the opposing side from the place where the offence occurred.

Should a player of the defending side intentionally commit one of the above nine offences within the penalty-area he shall be penalised by a penalty-kick.

A penalty-kick can be awarded irrespective of the position of the ball, if in play, at the time an offence within the penalty-area is committed.

A player committing any of the five following offences:

(1) Playing in a manner considered by the Referee to be dangerous, e.g., attempting to kick the ball while held by the goalkeeper;

(2) Charging fairly, i.e., with the shoulder, when the ball is not within playing distance of the players concerned and they are definitely not trying to play it;

(3) When not playing the ball, intentionally obstructing an opponent, i.e., running between the opponent and the ball, or interposing the body so as to form an obstacle to an opponent;

(4) Charging the goalkeeper except when he

(a) is holding the ball;

(b) is obstructing an opponent;

(c) has passed outside his goal-area;

(5) When playing as goalkeeper,

(a) takes more than 4 steps whilst holding, bouncing or throwing the ball in the air and catching it again without releasing it so that it is played by another player, or

(b) indulges in tactics which, in the opinion of the Referee, are designed merely to hold up the game and thus waste time and so give an unfair advantage to his own team – shall be penalised by the award of an indirect free-kick to be taken by the opposing side from the place where the infringement occurred.

A player shall be cautioned if:

(j) he enters or re-enters the field of play to join or rejoin his team after the game has commenced, or leaves the field of play during the progress of the game (except through accident) without, in either case, first having received a signal from the Referee showing him that he may do so. If the Referee stops the game to administer the caution the game shall be restarted by an indirect free-kick taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the ball was when the Referee stopped the game. If, however, the offending player has committed a more serious offence he shall be penalised according to that section of the law he infringed;

(k) he persistently infringes the Laws of the Game;

(l) he shows by word or action, dissent from any decision given by the Referee;

(m) he is guilty of ungentlemanly conduct.

For any of these last three offences, in addition to the caution, an indirect free-kick shall also be awarded to the opposing side from the place where the offence occurred unless a more serious infringement of the Laws of the Game was committed.

A player shall be sent off the field of play, if:

(n) in the opinion of the Referee he is guilty of violent conduct or serious foul play;

(o) he uses foul or abusive language;

(p) he persists in misconduct after having received a caution.

If play be stopped by reason of a player being ordered from the field for an offence without a separate breach of the Law having been committed, the game shall be resumed by an indirect free-kick awarded to the opposing side from the place where the infringement occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) If the goalkeeper either intentionally strikes an opponent by throwing the ball vigorously at him or pushes him with the ball while holding it, the Referee shall award a penalty-kick, if the offence took place within the penalty-area.

(2) If a player deliberately turns his back to an opponent when he is about to be tackled, he may be charged but not in a dangerous manner.

(3) In case of body-contact in the goal-area between an attacking player and the opposing goalkeeper not in possession of the ball, the Referee, as sole judge of intention, shall stop the game if, in his opinion, the action of the attacking player was intentional, and award an indirect free-kick.

(4) If a player leans on the shoulders of another player of his own team in order to head the ball, the Referee shall stop the game, caution the player for ungentlemanly conduct and award an indirect free-kick to the opposing side.

(5) A player's obligation when joining or rejoining his team after the start of the match to 'report to the Referee' must be interpreted as meaning 'to draw the attention of the Referee from the touch-line'. The signal from the Referee shall be made by a definite gesture which makes the player understand that he may come into the field of play; it is not necessary for the Referee to wait until the game is stopped (this does not apply in respect of an infringement of Law IV), but the Referee is the sole judge of the moment in which he gives his signal of acknowledgement.

(6) The letter and spirit of Law XII do not oblige the Referee to stop a game to administer a caution. He may, if he chooses, apply the advantage. If he does apply the advantage, he shall caution the player when play stops.

(7) If a player covers up the ball without touching it in an endeavour not to have it played by an opponent, he obstructs but does not infringe Law X11 para. 3 because he is already in possession of the ball and covers it for tactical reasons whilst the ball remains within playing distance. In fact, he is actually playing the ball and does not commit an infringement; in this case, the player may be charged because he is in fact playing the ball.

(8) If a player intentionally stretches his arms to obstruct an opponent and steps from one side to the other, moving his arms up and down to delay his opponent, forcing him to change course, but does not make "bodily contact" the Referee shall caution the player for ungentlemanly conduct and award an indirect free-kick.

(9) If a player intentionally obstructs the opposing goalkeeper, in an attempt to prevent him from putting the ball into play in accordance with Law XII, 5(a), the Referee shall award an indirect free-kick.

(10) If after a Referee has awarded a free-kick a player protests violently by using abusive or foul language and is sent off the field, the free-kick should not be taken until the player has left the field.

(11) Any player, whether he is within or outside the field of play, whose conduct is ungentlemanly or violent, whether or not it is directed towards an opponent, a colleague, the Referee, a linesman or other person, or who uses foul or abusive language, is guilty of an offence, and shall be dealt with according to the nature of the offence committed.

(12) If, in the opinion of the Referee a goalkeeper intentionally lies on the ball longer than is necessary, he shall be penalised for ungentlemanly conduct and

(a) be cautioned and an indirect free-kick awarded to the opposing team;

(b) in case of repetition of the offence, be sent off the field.

(13) The offence of spitting at opponents, officials or other persons, or similar unseemly behaviour shall be considered as violent conduct within the meaning of section (n) of Law XII.

(14) If, when a Referee is about to caution a player, and before he has done so, the player commits another offence which merits a caution, the player shall be sent off the field of play.

LAW XIII. – FREE-KICK

Free-kicks shall be classified under two headings: "Direct" (from which a goal can be scored direct against the offending side), and "Indirect" (from which a goal cannot be scored unless the ball has been played or touched by a player other than the kicker before passing through the goal).

When a player is taking a direct or an indirect free-kick inside his own penalty-area, all of the opposing players shall remain outside the area, and shall be at least ten yards from the ball whilst the kick is being taken. The ball shall be in play immediately it has travelled the distance of its own circumference and is beyond the penalty-area. The goalkeeper shall not receive the ball into his hands, in order that he may thereafter kick it into play. If the ball is not kicked direct into play, beyond the penalty-area, the kick shall be retaken.

When a player is taking a direct or an indirect free-kick outside his own penalty-area, all of the opposing players shall be at least ten yards from the ball, until it is in play, unless they are standing on their own goal-line, between the goal-posts. The ball shall be in play when it has travelled the distance of its own circumference.

If a player of the opposing side encroaches into the penalty-area, or within ten yards of the ball, as the case may be, before a free-kick is taken, the Referee shall delay the taking of the kick, until the Law is complied with.

The ball must be stationary when a free-kick is taken, and the kicker shall not play the ball a second time, until it has been touched or played by another player.

Punishment. If the kicker, after taking the free-kick, plays the ball a second time before it has been touched or played by another player an indirect free-kick shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the spot where the infringement occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) In order to distinguish between a direct and an indirect free-kick, the Referee, when he awards an indirect free-kick, shall indicate accordingly by raising an arm above his head. He shall keep his arm in that position until the kick has been taken.

(2) Players who do not retire to the proper distance when a free-kick is taken must be cautioned and on any repetition be ordered off. It is particularly requested of Referees that attempts to delay the taking of a free-kick by encroaching should be treated as serious misconduct.

(3) If, when a free-kick is being taken, any of the players dance about or gesticulate in a way calculated to distract their opponents, it shall be deemed ungentlemanly conduct for which the offender(s) shall be cautioned.

LAW XIV – PENALTY-KICK

A penalty-kick shall be taken from the penalty-mark and, when it is being taken, all players with the exception of the player taking the kick, and the opposing goalkeeper, shall be within the field of play but outside the penalty-area, and at least 10 yards from the penalty-mark. The opposing goalkeeper must stand (without moving his feet) on his own goal-line, between the goal-posts, until the ball is kicked. The player taking the kick must kick the ball forward he shall not play the ball a second time until it has been touched or played by another player. The ball shall be deemed in play directly it is kicked, i.e., when it has travelled the distance of its circumference, and a goal may be scored direct from such a penalty-kick. If the ball touches the goalkeeper before passing between the posts, when a penalty-kick is being taken at or after the expiration of half-time or full-time, it does not nullify a goal. If necessary, time of play shall be extended at half-time or full-time to allow a penalty-kick to be taken.

Punishment

For any infringement of this Law:

(a) by the defending team, the kick shall be retaken if a goal has not resulted.

(b) by the attacking team other than by the player taking the kick, if a goal is scored it shall be disallowed and the kick retaken.

(c) by the player taking the penalty-kick, committed after the ball is in play, a player of the opposing team shall take an indirect free-kick from the spot where the infringement occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) When the Referee has awarded a penalty-kick, he shall not signal for it to be taken, until the players have taken up position in accordance with the Law.

(2) (a) If, after the kick has been taken, the ball is stopped in its course towards goal, by an outside agent, the kick shall be retaken.

(b) If, after the kick has been taken, the ball rebounds into play, from the goalkeeper, the cross-bar or a goal-post, and is then stopped in its course by an outside agent, the Referee shall stop play and restart it by dropping the ball at the place where it came into contact with the outside agent.

(3) (a) If, after having given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, the Referee sees that the goalkeeper is not in his right place on the goal-line, he shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. It shall be retaken, if a goal is not scored.

(b) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball has been kicked, the goalkeeper moves his feet, the Referee shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. It shall be retaken, if a goal is not scored.

(c) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, a player of the defending team encroaches into the penalty-area, or within ten yards of the penalty-mark, the Referee shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. It shall be retaken, if a goal is not scored.

The player concerned shall be cautioned.

(4) (a) If, when a penalty-kick is being taken, the player taking the kick is guilty of ungentlemanly conduct, the kick, if already taken, shall be retaken, if a goal is scored.

The player concerned shall be cautioned.

(b) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, a colleague of the player taking the kick encroaches into the penalty-area or within ten yards of the penalty-mark, the Referee shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. If a goal is scored, it shall be disallowed, and the kick retaken.

The player concerned shall be cautioned.

(c) If, in the circumstances described in the foregoing paragraph, the ball rebounds into play from the goalkeeper, the crossbar or a goal-post, the Referee shall stop the game, caution the player and award an indirect free-kick to the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred.

(5) (a) If, after the referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, the goalkeeper moves from his position on the goal-line, or moves his feet, and a colleague of the kicker encroaches into the penalty-area or within 10 yards of the penalty-mark, the kick, if taken, shall be retaken.

The colleague of the kicker shall be cautioned.

(b) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, a player of each team encroaches into the penalty-area, or within 10 yards of the penalty-mark, the kick, if taken, shall be retaken.

The players concerned shall be cautioned.

(6) When a match is extended, at half-time or full-time, to allow a penalty-kick to be taken or retaken, the extension shall last until the moment that the penalty-kick has been completed, i.e. until the Referee has decided whether or not a goal is scored.

A goal is scored when the ball passes wholly over the goal-line.

(a) direct from the penalty-kick,

(b) having rebounded from either goal-post or the cross-bar, or

(c) having touched or been played by the goalkeeper.

The game shall terminate immediately the Referee has made his decision.

(7) When a penalty-kick is being taken in extended time:

(a) the provisions of all of the foregoing paragraphs, except paragraphs (2) (b) and (4) (c) shall apply in the usual way, and

(b) in the circumstances described in paragraphs (2) (b) and (4) (c) the game shall terminate immediately the ball rebounds from the goalkeeper, the cross-bar or the goalpost.

LAW XV – THROW-IN

When the whole of the ball passes over a touch-line, either on the ground or in the air, it shall be thrown in from the point where it crossed the line, in any direction, by a player of the team opposite to that of the player who last touched it. The thrower at the moment of delivering the ball must face the field of play and part of each foot shall be either on the touch-line or on the ground outside the touch-line. The thrower shall use both hands and shall deliver the ball from behind and over his head. The ball shall be in play immediately it enters the field of play, but the thrower shall not again play the ball until it has been touched or played by another player. A goal shall not be scored direct from a throw-in.

Punishment:

(a) If the ball is improperly thrown in the throw-in shall be taken by a player of the opposing team.

(b) If the thrower plays the ball a second time before it has been touched or played by another player, an indirect free-kick shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) If a player taking a throw-in, plays the ball a second time by handling it within the field of play before it has been touched or played by another player, the Referee shall award a direct free-kick.

(2) A player taking a throw-in must face the field of play with some part of his body.

(3) If, when a throw-in is being taken, any of the opposing players dance about or gesticulate in a way calculated to distract or impede the thrower, it shall be deemed ungentlemanly conduct, for which the offender(s) shall be cautioned.

LAW XVI – GOAL-KICK

When the whole of the ball passes over the goal-line excluding that portion between the goal-posts, either in the air or on the ground, having last been played by one of the attacking team, it shall be kicked direct into play beyond the penalty-area from a point within that half of the goal-area nearest to where it crossed the line, by a player of the defending team. A goalkeeper shall not receive the ball into his hands from a goal-kick in order that he may thereafter kick it into play. If the ball is not kicked beyond the penalty-area, i.e., direct into play, the kick shall be retaken. The kicker shall not play the ball a second time until it has touched – or been played by – another player. A goal shall not be scored direct from such a kick. Players of the team opposing that of the player taking the goal-kick shall remain outside the penalty-area whilst the kick is being taken.

Punishment:

If a player taking a goal-kick plays the ball a second time after it has passed beyond the penalty-area, but before it has touched or been played by another player, an indirect free-kick shall be awarded to the opposing team, to be taken from the place where the infringement occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) When a goal-kick has been taken and the player who has kicked the ball touches it again before it has left the penalty-area, the kick has not been taken in accordance with the Law and must be retaken.

LAW XVII – CORNER-KICK

When the whole of the ball passes over the goal-line, excluding that portion between the goal-posts, either in the air or on the ground, having last been played by one of the defending team, a member of the attacking team shall take a corner-kick, i.e., the whole of the ball shall be placed within the quarter circle at the nearest corner-flag-post, which must not be moved, and it shall be kicked from that position. A goal may be scored direct from such a kick. Players of the team opposing that of the player taking the corner-kick shall not approach within 10 yards of the ball until it is in play, i.e., it has travelled the distance of its own circumference, nor shall the kicker play the ball a second time until it has been touched or played by another player.

Punishment:

(a) If the player who takes the kick plays the ball a second time before it has been touched or played by another player, the Referee shall award an indirect free-kick to the opposing team, to be taken from the place where the infringement occurred.

(b) For any other infringement the kick shall be retaken.
